CREDIT IN DOMINION FOR ALLIES FOR WORK OF REPAIRING RAVAGES

White Says Question of Indemnity From Germany Has No Bearing on Canada's Participation in Business Arising Out of Restoration

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—The story emanating from a Montreal financial paper that Canada would forego all claims for indemnity against Germany if $1,000,000,000 should be expended in Canada for materials to be used in reconstruction in Northern France and Belgium is declared by Sir Thomas White to be without foundation. Asked in regard to the matter, Sir Thomas said the question of indemnity against Germany has no bearing on the right which Canada asserts of participation with the other Allies in the business arising out of the restoration by the Allies of France, Belgium and other devastated countries.

The position was that the Prime Minister had taken with him to London a memorandum prepared by the Minister of Finance offering an extensive credit in Canada for the purchase of materials and supplies to be used in the work of reconstruction, Sir Thomas said. In return for this credit, which would be expended entirely in Canada, the Government would accept the securities of an international commission backed by inter-Ally credit, or the securities of one or more of the nations concerned. Such securities might be collateralized by any indemnities to which the nation in question might be entitled from Germany. So far as Canada was concerned, there would therefore be no additional interest charges owing to the increase in the national debt incurred by establishing the credit here. The interest which the Dominion would receive upon such a credit would be equivalent to the interest which the Dominion would pay upon loans issued to the Canadian people for the purpose of raising money.

Well Received.
The Minister of Finance had received a cable from Sir Robert Borden stating that the Dominion would pay taken up with the British authorities. There was reason to believe that it had been well received.
It is probable that the Canadian representatives will join the committee, one of which is being established for each country requiring extensive reconstruction work. Sir George Foster, Sir George Perley and Messrs. Jones, Robertson and Draper are acting as a committee to put forward the interests of Canada in this regard.

ARMENIANS MUST NOT BE MOLESTED

New Turkish Attacks Must Cease or Britain Will Send Warships

Constantinople, Nov. 19.—Delayed.—(Associated Press).—Attacks on the Armenians have been resumed in the district of Erzerum, on the border of the Caucasus, by Turkish troops under the leadership of Nour Pasha, brother of Enver Pasha, former Turkish Minister of War. Nour Pasha declares that he is outside the authority of the present Constantinople Government and that he has been delegated by the revolt of the district to suppress the revolt of the Armenians.
If the attacks continue British warships will be sent to Batum.
Several steamships of the German Black Sea fleet have been disarmed. They will leave this week for Russian Black Sea ports with German and Austrian citizens.

INFLUENZA IN NEW ZEALAND.

Auckland, N. Z., Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press Dispatch From Reuters).—The influenza epidemic continues to spread in various districts and all places of entertainment have been ordered closed.

ALLIED WARSHIPS WENT THROUGH BOSPHORUS AND VISITED BLACK SEA PORTS

Paris, Nov. 25.—The Bosphorus having been cleared of mines, Allied warships entered the Black Sea and have visited various ports from Varna around to Novorossiysk.

As soon as the mine-sweeping operations in the Bosphorus had been completed French and other Allied warships were detached from the naval forces stationed at Constantinople and visited the Black Sea ports of Varna, Galata, Ereğri, Samsun, Sinope, Trebizond, Batum, Potia and Novorossiysk.

General Franchet d'Espèrey, commander of the victorious Allied forces in Macedonia, arrived in Constantinople Saturday.

CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED TO MAKE PERSHING PRESIDENT OF U. S.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 25.—A campaign for the election of General John J. Pershing, Commander-in-Chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, to the Presidency of the United States in 1920, was formally launched in Ohio to-day, by an application to the Secretary of State for the incorporation of "The Pershing Republican League."

Hungary Requests Allies to Discuss Peace Immediately

Basel, Nov. 25.—(Havas).—The Hungarian Government has requested the Allies to hold an immediate discussion of peace terms, according to reports reaching the Swiss newspapers.

HINDENBURG ADMITS GERMAN TROOPS NOW UNABLE TO FIGHT

Berne, Nov. 25.—Field-Marshal von Hindenburg, according to the Wolff Agency, has telegraphed the Berlin Government asserting categorically that the German army, because of the hard terms of the armistice and of the internal situation, is in no position to renew fighting. The German leader added that even operations against the French army alone would be impossible.

KING OF BELGIANS WILL VISIT PARIS ON DECEMBER 5

Paris, Nov. 25.—(Havas).—King Albert, of Belgium will visit Paris on December 5, it is announced. He will leave for Brussels early in the evening.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT HAS YIELDED TO THE COUNCIL OF SOLDIERS AND WORKMEN

Copenhagen, Nov. 25.—An agreement has been reached between the German Soldiers' and Workmen's Council and the Government, it has been officially made known in Berlin. The agreement provides: First—All political power is to be in the hands of the German Socialist Republic and the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council.
Second—Their aim is to defend and develop what has been achieved by the revolution and to suppress all counter-revolutionary activity.
Third—Pending the election of representatives of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils to an Executive Council of the German Republic, the Executive Council in Berlin is to exercise its functions.

NO MODIFICATION OF ALLIES' TERMS

German Members of Joint Armistice Commission Make Efforts in Vain

Paris, Nov. 25.—The conferences on the preliminary of peace probably will be held in Paris instead of at Versailles, owing to the superior accommodations and conveniences in the capital. Only the formal sessions at Versailles.

The only active sittings now going on are those of the joint armistice commission which is holding daily sessions at 8 p.m. The former German headquarters, but which is now held by the French. French, British and German delegates attend the meetings. Gen. Nudant represents Marshal Foch, with Commandant Sleser as his assistant. Gen. von Winterfeldt is the German military representative, and Mathias Erbsberger, who also was a member of the German armistice delegation, participates in most of the sessions.

Lively Meetings.
Some of the meetings are described as having been very animated over the efforts of the Germans to secure modifications of the terms of the armistice. Marshal Foch's reply was a refusal to consider a change, a dispatch from Basel giving the Marshal's reply as follows:
"No attention can be given to the demands presented in Gen. von Winterfeldt's letter of November 21."

The joint armistice commission now meeting appears to be in accordance with clause 34 of the armistice, which admitted the principle of a permanent armistice commission under the direction of Allied military and naval chiefs. While its duties are restricted to the execution of the armistice, it is one of the preliminaries which will merge later into the sessions of the Inter-Allied conference and the peace congress.

Signed By March 1.
Paris, Nov. 25.—(Havas).—The preliminary to the peace negotiations will begin about January 1. The Echo de Paris declares, and the protocol will be signed about the end of February. The paper adds that the French Premier will go to London on December 4.
Marshal Foch's refusal to accede to the propositions of the German delegation, according to The Mail, will apply to all proposals in the future.

KING WILL ARRIVE IN PARIS THURSDAY

Will Convey Congratulations of British Empire to France on Victory

Paris, Nov. 25.—(British Wireless Service).—Great preparations are being made for the visit of King George to France this week. President Poincaré and members of the French Government will meet the King at the railway station, whence a procession will drive to the Foreign Office, where a suite of rooms has been reserved for the use of the King and his party during their stay in Paris.

The official object of the King's visit is to convey personally to the President his congratulations on the successful termination of the war. King George will pay an official visit to the President on Thursday, the day of his arrival, and in the evening a dinner will be given by the President at the Elysée Palace. On Friday there will be receptions at the British Embassy and on Saturday the King will leave Paris to visit the armistice.

Wilson's Visit.
London, Nov. 25.—"President Wilson will receive the greatest reception ever given any guest. No progress any Emperor ever made will equal his," says The Observer in an article discussing the coming visit of the President to the United Kingdom. It adds: "We rejoice that an event we have so urgently advocated is now assured."

The newspaper, discussing the question of the freedom of the seas, says: "There is a profound contrast between the United States, which is a solid continental unit, and the British Empire, which is essentially a maritime system."
"Shipping and the naval means for guarding it correspond to the trans-continental railways which link the United States from ocean to ocean, and to the internal police required for guarding them. If this one fundamental diversity between the positions of the two countries and their sources of life is grasped there can be no extreme difficulty in adjusting points of view on all matters."

FOCH ENTERS STRASSBURG AND TAKES CITY OVER FOR FRANCE AND HER ALLIES

Strasbourg, Nov. 25.—General Gouraud entered this city yesterday at the head of the French Fourth Army, amid the tremendous enthusiasm of 300,000 people. Never did an army have such a triumphal greeting.

"Such a spectacle repays us for our suffering," said General Gouraud, who issued a proclamation to the city beginning with the words of the Marseillaise—"The day of glory has come."

The ceremonial entry, during which Marshal Foch will take possession of the city in the name of France and the Allies, is fixed for 1.30 this (Monday) afternoon.

Most Imposing Flotilla of Teuton Underseas Craft Yet Seen Passing Through Ceremony of Surrender; Several Large Submarines Included in Group

Harwich, Nov. 25.—In the presence of Sir Eric Geddes, First Lord of the Admiralty, twenty-eight more German U boats surrendered yesterday. This was the most imposing flotilla to haul down the German flag thus far. It included several very large submarines and four of the cruiser type, one being nearly 350 feet in length.

The noted cruiser submarine Deutschland U 153, was among the number. She carried two American officers who had been rescued from the American cargo ship Ticonderoga, torpedoed on September 30 last. The officers were taken to Kiel by the Deutschland, which was returning from a three months' cruise in American waters. They were landed at Harwich.

Another boat surrendered was the U 139, which has just returned to a German port after a sixty-four days' cruise, commanded by Lieut. Commander Arnaud de la Perrière, who, in 1916, was awarded the Order Pour le Mérite for sinking 126 vessels. The U 139, however, was brought in by a first lieutenant, who explained that Perrière was too sad to undertake the duty.

BRITISH WAR VESSELS TO KIEL AND WILHELMSHAVEN

London, Nov. 25.—A flotilla of mine-sweepers left the Firth of Forth this morning to clear a passage to Kiel, for the British squadron which, it is understood, will disarm and intern the remainder ships of the German navy. Wilhelmshaven also will be visited by the squadron, which it is reported will comprise one dreadnought and a flotilla of destroyers.

PREMIER OLIVER RETURNING TO COAST

Four Heads of Provincial Governments in Toronto Over Week-End

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Four Provincial Premiers—Premier Oliver, British Columbia; Premier Norris, Manitoba; Premier Foster, New Brunswick, and Premier Stewart, Alberta, were in Toronto during the week-end on their way home after the Conference at Ottawa which concluded its work Friday, following a four-days' sitting. Hon. C. R. Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer of Alberta, also was in the city.

As the Dominion Government intends to issue a statement on the findings of the Conference the Provincial Premiers were not inclined to discuss the reconstruction policy as outlined by the Federal Cabinet. They stated that the proposals of the cabinet had met with the approval of the Provincial Premiers and had not been subjected to any destructive criticism.

Premier Oliver, Premier Norris and Premier Foster left to-day for their homes and Premier Stewart will leave for the west to-night. Mr. Mitchell will stay here until the end of the week.

BOSNIANS SEEKING UNION WITH SERBIA

Bosnian Government Asks Bosnia and Herzegovina Be Re-united With Kingdom

Basel, Nov. 25.—The Bosnian National Government has addressed a note to Crown Prince Alexander of Serbia, asking for an immediate reunion of Bosnia and Herzegovina with the Serbian Kingdom under the sovereignty of the Karađorjević dynasty, of which the Crown Prince is the ruling head.

Karađorje (Black George) Petrovitch, was the founder of the reigning dynasty in Serbia. He was murdered in 1917, leaving two sons, one of whom, Alexander, became the reigning Prince in 1918. The title of Alexander to the throne was confirmed but the dignity is not hereditary. In 1858 Alexander was forced to abdicate and was banished. The Obrenovitch dynasty then became the reigning house of Serbia and continued until 1903, when King Alexander and his Queen were murdered. Then the Karađorjević House returned to power, King Peter I. becoming monarch. His elder son, Prince George, renounced succession to the throne in 1909 and Prince Alexander, his younger brother, became the Heir-Apparent. Prince Alexander fought with great distinction during the recent Allied offensive in Southern Serbia.

AMERICAN NAVAL SHIPS RETURN FROM EUROPEAN WATERS

Paris, Nov. 25.—The American naval establishment in European ports and waters is being reduced rapidly since the signing of the armistice. It is intended to order home soon all small craft, destroyers and submarines used principally as convoys, except a limited number for patrol and escort duty.

RETURNING SOLDIERS ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN

St. John, N. B., Nov. 25.—The C. F. R. liner Tuniscana, the first large passenger ship here this season, arrived Saturday with a heavy mail and 400 passengers, including 300 returned officers and men. Parties for Toronto and the West, as well as Nova Scotia, left for their destinations at midnight Saturday.

CABINET MEMBERS WILL GREET WILSON

U. S. President Will Be in Britain as Election Campaign is Ending

London, Nov. 25.—The British newspapers yesterday contained little comment on the coming visit of President Wilson, probably owing to the greater interest in the political situation. The President's visit will coincide with the closing week of the general election campaign, according to the programme cabled from New York.

Ordinarily London would practically be deserted by public men, who would be making speeches in their constituencies, but Mr. Lloyd George and the other members of the Cabinet will of course place their time at the President's disposal. The interest which the President's presence naturally would arouse strong competition with the election excitement.

Sea Policy.
The Times and The Observer printed editorials to-day assuring the President of a warm welcome and pointing out to him the advantage of meeting the chiefs of the Allied nations for a personal discussion of the peace terms. Both express misgivings regarding President Wilson's policy as to the freedom of the seas, which is regarded here as the only point on which Anglo-American differences may be feared. Both argue strongly that the maintenance of Great Britain's traditional sea policy is vital and that no change can be considered under any circumstances.

GERMAN WHO HANDED OVER U BOATS PAID TRIBUTE TO BRITISH

London, Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuters.)—The following is the concluding sentence of the message sent by wireless to Germany by Commander Fraun, who commanded the German flotilla of submarines surrendered to the British navy, the message having been picked up by British warships: "The English ships, as regards conditions of discipline, were faultless."

CELEBRATIONS HELD IN SOUTH AFRICA

Signing of Armistice Cause of Enthusiasm; Botha Spoke in Cape Town

Cape Town, Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuters.)—The news of the signing of the armistice led to scenes of unprecedented enthusiasm throughout South Africa. Addressing a huge demonstration in Cape Town, Gen. Botha, Prime Minister of the Union, moved a resolution congratulating the King, the army and the navy and the Allies. He expressed thankfulness to God that the Allies had done the world a magnificent service. He prayed to God that there would be peace, friendship and brotherhood among the nations.

Sir Thomas Smart, leader of the Opposition, seconding the resolution, said that while a peaceful peace was not desired, everything should be done to obtain reparation and justice.

The resolution was enthusiastically and unanimously carried. The demonstration concluded with the dispatch of a message congratulating the King and the Allies on the victory.

Gen. Botha, whose speech was his first since his recovery from his recent illness, had a great reception. He was roundly cheered and "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung tumultuously.

The event recalled on a greater scale Cape Town's welcome to its soldier-Prime Minister on his triumphant return from the Southwest African campaign.

KING ALBERT'S SPEECH AT HISTORIC RE-ENTRY INTO HIS CAPITAL

Brussels, Nov. 24.—(Via London, Nov. 25.)—(By Reuters.)—King Albert, replying to the speech of welcome of Burgomaster Max on his entry into the capital, said:

"The Queen and I have listened with emotion to the eloquent words addressed to us by Burgomaster Max. This is the best day of our existence, this day when we return to this beautiful capital at last liberated by the victory of the Allies. After the trials of four years we rejoice from the bottom of our hearts to meet once again our brother citizens, who have never ceased to hold their heads erect like free men before brutality and oppression. I desire to pay them the tribute of my profound homage and admiration. Your burgomaster has been heroic. He takes his place in the front rank among the most illustrious magistrates in our history."

MESSAGE FROM BERLIN TO RETURNING SOLDIERS

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Via Amsterdam, Nov. 25.—The Council of the People's Commissioners welcomes the returning troops with a proclamation saying among other things:

"You marched into the field for the fatherland when you had nothing to say and a handful of autocrats had the power in their hands and distributed the booty among themselves. You had to fight in silence, while hundreds of thousands at your side had to die. To-day you return to your own country, where in future only the people themselves will have anything to say."

Stop Sneezing Quit Sniffling Cure Your Cold

The Soothing Vapors of Catarrhazone Bring Instantaneous Relief.

Thousands of Testimonials Prove that Catarrhazone Cures Permanently.

When germs attack the lining of the nose, make you sneeze and gag, when later on they infect the bronchial tubes, how can you follow them with a cough syrup?

You can't do it—that's all. Cough syrup goes to the stomach—that's why they fail.

But Catarrhazone goes everywhere—gets right after the germs—kills them—heals the soreness—cures the inflammation—makes Catarrh disappear.

"Nothing I have ever used gives the warm, soothing sensation of Catarrhazone," writes Isabel Fry, of Seguin Falls, Ont. "I was in a frightful way with catarrh of the nose and throat—had droppings, hard breathing, bad headache and indigestion. Catarrhazone relieved at once and cured me thoroughly. It is invaluable in colds, sore throat and bronchial trouble." Not difficult for Catarrhazone to cure, because it contains the essence of pine balsam and other antiseptics that simply mean death to catarrh. Large size costs $1.00, and contains two months' treatment; smaller sizes, 50c and 25c, all drug stores and storekeepers, or The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

PRESIDENT'S POLICY DISPLEAS M'ADOO

Latter, Retiring From U. S. Cabinet, Reported to Be Against Govt. Ownership

Providence, R. I., Nov. 25.—The Providence Journal says to-day:

"The basic reason for the withdrawal of William G. McAdoo from the Cabinet is not, as stated for publication, the fact that the Secretary of the Treasury found it impossible to live in Washington on his official salary, but that he found himself in total disagreement with what he considers the President's set purpose to impose Government ownership or Government control of all public utilities in the country. He was determined to remain no longer a member of a Cabinet which was fast drifting into that policy."

THRONE GIVEN UP BY DUKE OF BADEN

Basel, Nov. 24.—Via London, Nov. 25.—In a proclamation issued Friday in Karlsruhe, Grand Duke Friedrich of Baden, said that he relieved the officials and soldiers from their oath of fidelity and renounced the throne for himself and his descendants in accordance with the views of his cousin and heir, Prince Maximilian, the former German Chancellor.

The Provisional People's Government of Baden, in announcing the abdication to the people, declared that the Grand Duke and his family and their honor were under the protection of the Baden republic. The announcement rendered homage to the patriotism of the Grand Duke and the services of Prince Maximilian to Germany.

Amsterdam, Nov. 24.—Via London, Nov. 25.—Field-Marshal von Mackensen, former German commander-in-chief in Roumania, arrived in Berlin Thursday with his staff, according to a British dispatch to The Rhenish Westphalian Gazette. The German troops returning with him met Czech-Slovak forces at Silesia, Moravia, and were unable to continue the journey by way of Oderberg and were forced to withdraw from Austria by way of Vienna and Passau.

SUIT OF CLOTHES $150 IN VIENNA

Shirtwaists Cost $100 Each; Great Misery Among the Poor

Vienna, Nov. 24.—(Via London, Nov. 25.—Associated Press.)—The difficulties attending the process of returning to a peace footing after the war are illustrated here. The munitions factories have been shut down, throwing out of work hundreds of thousands of men and women, who have little prospect of obtaining employment because of the lack of coal. Cold weather already has begun and snow has fallen in Vienna.

While the streets of the city are bright and the theatres and opera are open, well-dressed people are walking or using street cars, as cabmen demand from two to three dollars a ride. This is all on the surface. There is untold misery in the poorer quarters, with a constant cry for bread, of which there is provided half a loaf a week for each person. Prices here are probably the highest to be found in Europe and seem fantastic. The price of a shirt waist is $100; stockings cost $5 and a suit of clothes $150. The profiteers also are hit, the industry of weaving paper into material for the manufacture of men's and women's clothing having virtually ceased. This material, which once sold for six dollars a yard, is now being dumped on the market at any price.

Food and Coal.

Vienna is making desperate efforts to get food and coal, which the Czechs and Slovaks are said to have offered provided they are granted the western strip of old Bohemia, adjoining Old Bavaria. It also is stated that proposals have been made by American packing companies, but cable communication is very slow and uncertain. There is need for the business people here to open their former vocations, but this at present is impossible. It is proposed to ask President Wilson for help in carrying out the work of adjusting the country to its new life.

FOUR KILLED.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Three persons were instantly killed, one died from injuries and two others are in the general hospital here, as a result of a collision between a Grand Trunk train and a motor car at a street crossing in Brampton just before 6 o'clock on Saturday evening. The dead: Edith and James Sawdon, Pearl Belles and a Miss Gault. The injured: W. and Charles Sawdon.

AUSTRALIAN FRANCHISE.

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 25.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuters.)—The House of Representatives, discussing amendments of the electoral bill, agreed to give the vote to every member of the Commonwealth military and naval forces irrespective of age. The amendment in favor of compulsory service was rejected.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—“During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life.”
—Mrs. Fannie Hanson, 3318 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, “heat flashes,” backache, headaches and “the blues” should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ADMIRALTY VOICES PRAISE OF SAILORS

Britain's Sea Forces Have Given World Unique Demonstration of Power

London, Nov. 25.—(British Wireless Service.)—The Admiralty has addressed a message of felicitation to the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines as follows:

“The Admiralty desires to express to the officers and men of the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines on the completion of their great work, its congratulations on a triumph of which history knows no parallel. The surrender of the German fleet, accomplished without the shock of battle, will remain for all time the example of the wonderful silence and sureness with which our sea power attained its end. The world recognizes that this consummation is due to the steadfastness with which the navy has maintained its pressure on the enemy through more than four years of war—a pressure exerted not less incessantly during the long monotony of waiting than in the rare opportunities of attack.”

Germans Removed Inhabitants and Pillaged Homes in Mezières-Charleville Region

Paris, Nov. 25.—On the eve of the signing of the armistice the Germans carried out their usual acts of cruelty and pillage in the Mezières-Charleville region, according to an interview with Albert Favre, Under-Secretary of State for the Interior, in The Temps. The then German Kaiser and the then Crown Prince had their headquarters in this region for more than three years and the district was intact until the morning of November 10. On that morning the Germans removed the inhabitants and carried out a systematic robbing of the homes and buildings. In the afternoon the enemy batteries directed a heavy fire against Mezières and destroyed half the town. During the bombardment it was necessary to remove the 200 children to the hospital there. The bombardment stopped at 10.30 o'clock on the morning of November 11, half an hour before the armistice went into effect.

At destruction was carried out without any military aim and is new proof of German barbarism. M. Favre adds, General von Arnim commanded the German troops in the Mezières region.

MISS ANNA A. MALEY DIES AT MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis, Nov. 25.—Miss Anna A. Maley, author and lecturer, and until recently one of the five members of the executive committee of the Socialist Committee of America, died at her home here yesterday following a long illness. At the time of her death she was assistant secretary. Thomas Van Lear, Socialist Mayor of Minneapolis, and for years had played a prominent part in national affairs of the Socialist party.

At one time Miss Maley was a candidate on the Socialist ticket for Governor of the State of Washington, and although she lost, she polled a large vote.

While a member of the executive committee of the Socialist Party she was a delegate to the famous convention of the party at St. Louis at which the “St. Louis platform” opposing the German fleet was adopted. She voted for the minority report at the convention.

FOUR AT SERVICE CONDUCTED DESPITE INFLUENZA WAVE

Port Arthur, Nov. 24.—Defying the order of the Medical Officer, Dr. C. N. Laurie, prohibiting public gatherings on account of the Spanish influenza epidemic, the Rev. R. F. Palmer, vicar of an Anglican mission here, on Saturday advertised services for yesterday. The Medical Officer caused two policemen to be stationed at the door of the church to take the names of those who entered. Only four persons, in addition to the vicar, would give their names. The others were not allowed to enter, but a regular service was held for the four.

WOMAN CANDIDATE.

Regina, Nov. 25.—Mrs. Stuart Muirhead is the first woman to run for an elective office in connection with Regina civic elections. She has announced herself as a candidate for the Public School Board with the endorsement of the Local Council of Women.

AGAINST NEW COALITION.

London, Nov. 25.—William Bruce, Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Home Affairs and a Labor member of the House of Commons, speaking yesterday at Krumlin, Ireland, announced that he would not accept office under a new Coalition Government.

CLOTHES AND HEALTH.

It would be interesting if the Health Department could discover which set of men yields most easily to the influenza germ—the careless coatless, who try to make their circulatory system keep them warm, or the set who go uncluttered and perspiring. The inquiry need relate only to men. It has long been established that women pay no such heed to heavy clothing as men do, and that they, bare of throat and back, and wearing autumn furs only for fashion, are not such easy prey to germs as more cautious husbands. The female of the species is more husky than the male. New York Sun.

TEXAS SHERIFF COMES OUT FOR TANLAC

“Money Could Not Buy the Good It Has Done Me,” Says Prominent Official

“Money could not buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case,” said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, of Houston, Tex., ex-sheriff of Harris county, recently.

Mr. Anderson is unquestionably not only one of the best known, but one of the most popular men that ever held public office in the “Lone Star” State. After serving as deputy sheriff of Harris county for twelve years Mr. Anderson was elected chief of police of the City of Houston. He had occupied the office only a short time when the sheriff of Harris county died. Mr. Anderson's friends then persuaded him to make the race for unexpired term of sheriff, to which he was easily elected. He was honored with re-election seven different times and served the people in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Four years ago Mr. Anderson declined re-election and retired to private life. “He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of this interesting and prosperous city.”

“I was in a run-down condition,” continued Mr. Anderson, “and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the morning. I was so tired. I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, as when I drank it with sugar I would just belch for hours. I would blot and swell up like I was poisoned and suffered from neuritis—peins—of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me, only in a temporary way. I just can't tell you how I did suffer for the past four years and up to the time I began taking Tanlac, a few weeks ago.”

“When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine I just felt like I couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac, and it has done more for me than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and have just now started on my third, and I am a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just anything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work, and I am telling all my friends just what I'm telling you. I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish benefit by my experience with this great medicine.”

MESSAGE FROM KING TO NAVY LEAGUE

Sovereign Thanks Organizations; Wreath on Nelson's Monument

London, Nov. 25.—(British Wireless Service.)—King George has sent the following message in reply to a telegram of congratulation sent to him by the Navy League:

“I sincerely thank you, Mr. President and members of the Navy League, for your loyal congratulations on this triumphant day of our navy, when it receives the ships of the surrendered German fleet.”

The Navy League has placed a wreath on Nelson's column, with this inscription: “On the Occasion of the Surrender of the German Fleet the Navy League places this Wreath in Triumphant Memory of the Gallant Officers and Men of the British Navy, the Naval Auxiliary Service and the Mercantile Marine, worthy descendants of Nelson and his comrades, who laid down their lives in defending the liberty of mankind.”

THE COCKPIT OF THE WORLD.

Belgium has usurped a sort of monopoly in cockpits for the wars of Europe, and as the Mater Dolorosa of nations. But what is her claim to the distinction compared with Palestine? This fifty mile strip of fertile land between the desert and the deep sea has been the meeting place for international duels from the very dawn of history, and holds that awful prominence more strongly than ever today. Twenty Belgians could not enter into the rivalry. The position is decisive. It links Europe to Asia; it touches Africa; it is the shortest cut to India; and once there, the Pacific is at your feet to belie its name with a brine of half the mischief on the orb.—London Daily News.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Several communications have appeared in the press emphasizing the importance of the forthcoming municipal elections and urging the electors to make a careful and more intelligent choice of the men to manage their business during the next twelve months. One suggestion is for the various organizations of the community to agree upon a ticket composed of the best material available and see that it is elected.

The advice to the public to manifest a closer interest in the selection of the Council and School Trustees is not new; it has been the prelude to every municipal election since Victoria was incorporated. But it is always sound and to the point. The public is responsible for the kind of municipal government it receives; it is responsible in the final analysis for most of the sins of commission or omission against which it complains so trenchantly from time to time. A Government, whether national, provincial or municipal, is a fairly faithful composite picture of the electorate in the mass.

But that advice has not always fallen upon deaf ears. Indeed, the public invariably selects the best men that offer themselves for election and the fact that no better men are among the candidates is less a reflection upon the public than upon the "better men." And this, in turn, implies credit to those who do offer themselves, for there are few more thankless and unsatisfactory tasks than that of managing the civic business of Victoria under its present system.

That system is so antiquated and inadequate that we venture to say that a Council of the ablest experts to be found anywhere would be criticized as freely as the average Council Victoria has had in the last forty years. We have had good men in our civic administration; time and again successful business men—and we have good men now. We have had "all-star" aggregations—and the result always has been the same.

The biggest business in this city is the business of the municipality, by long odds. And by longer odds it is the most difficult business to manage, because it has more conflicting interests among its shareholders to satisfy. To run it we have a Council whose official life is just one year, and whose members cannot possibly develop a policy with any assured continuity or permanence because they are liable to disappear in the next election. And not infrequently when they offer themselves for re-election they are charged with being self-seeking or ambitious, or mercenary with their eyes fixed upon the princely remuneration of $400 per annum!

Victoria is limping along with an administrative system which is scarcely less an anachronism than a Hudson Bay Company fort would be for a City Hall. It is a draw-back to progress and is one of the principal reasons why outsiders have the impression that we are half asleep. No important private business would last six months if its directors were subjected to such disabilities.

If our affairs are to be conducted by a Council then let that Council have some continuity of office so that it may inaugurate policies that can be subjected to the fair test of time. There should be a two-year term with a certain proportion of the members retiring every year. We should either have that or abolish the Council system altogether and substitute a Commission. But until some such change has been effected most Councils in this city will look alike at the end of their respective years and that would be the case if they were composed entirely of Shakespeares, Morgans or Schwabs instead of the Messrs. Average Citizen.

FOCH ENTERS STRASBOURG.

This afternoon Marshal Foch entered Strasbourg, Strasbourg no longer. It will be noticed, perhaps, that this is the first formal entry made by the great Marshal of France into the two redeemed provinces. It was Foch who led the French troops into Metz and the occasion was signalized by the promotion of the French commander-in-chief to be a Marshal. Gouraud occupied Strasbourg yesterday and this probably will be marked by the bestowal of a similar distinction upon the one-armed "lion of the Champagne." Now Foch, the supreme leader of all the Allied forces, makes his ceremonial entrance into the place.

Strasbourg, under German rule, was the civil capital of Alsace-Lorraine, and it was chosen as such with deliberate, malicious intent. It was held in special veneration by the French people for its historic, racial and religious reasons and Bismarck knew that by making it the administrative seat of the two stolen districts he was giving a savage twist to the knife he had driven into the side of France.

Originally peopled by the Celts, Strasbourg had been in French hands firmly since the fifth century and of all the cities of France none was more thoroughly French in thought and custom. Like all Alsace, of which it is the chief centre, it has remained French in everything but name and administration in spite of all the tyrannical methods of its Prussian conquerors. To the French mind, Strasbourg typified the soul of Alsace-Lorraine, whereas Metz had come to be regarded as typifying German military power.

Thus, upon Strasbourg devolves the honor of welcoming, on behalf of the two restored provinces, the man whose genius has re-established their connection with France, and no city in the world could desire a loftier honor. For Foch combines the military genius of a Bonaparte or a Turenne with the chivalry and humility of a Bayard; he is a master-soldier inspired and animated by moral principle.

But Strasbourg will acclaim the great Marshal to-day for more than his pre-eminent personal qualities and for more than the fact that he is a gifted son of France. He enters the capital of Alsace and Lorraine as the leader of all the Allied armies; he represents, not France alone, but Great Britain, the United States, Italy and Belgium, whose combined efforts were required to achieve its liberation from the Teutonic yoke. In his person as the supreme chieftain of the Allies he embodies the pride of all of them in having helped to "right the wrong done in 1871," as a symbol of victory over Prussianism and as their affectionate and grateful tribute to what France, bruised and bleeding, has done to make the world safe for democracy.

IF THEY HAD WON.

A few days before he died Herr Ballin, head of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, in a letter to the editor of The National Zeitung, described the terms of the armistice as forecasted in press reports as moderate in contrast with what Germany would have demanded if she had won. Germany, he said, would have required the occupation of Paris and London, insisted upon dictating peace in Buckingham Palace and annexed the whole of Europe from the Urals to the Bay of Biscay.

These, however, would have been only a fraction of Germany's account against the Allies. A more complete bill was announced by Count von Roon on June 30, as follows:

1. No armistice until British forces were out of France and Paris occupied.
2. Annexation of Belgium and the channel coast to south of Calais.
3. Annexation of the Briey-Lengwy iron region.
4. Annexation of Belfort, Toul and Verdun, and all French territory east of these forts.
5. Return of German colonies.
6. Surrender by Great Britain of coaling stations, including Gibraltar.
7. Surrender to Germany of the entire British Navy.
8. Egypt and the Suez Canal to Turkey.
9. Restoration of Constantine as King of Greece.
10. Division of Serbia between Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria.
11. Payment of indemnity of $45,000,000 by Great Britain, France and the United States.
12. Occupation of French territories until agreements were carried out, costs of occupation being met by the enemy.

But even these "war aims" of Germany did not cover the whole ground in view. Mr. Morgenthau, United States Ambassador to Turkey, says that the German Ambassador at Constantinople told him that at the Potsdam Conference, July 5, 1914, it was decided that France alone would have to pay $20,000,000,000 and surrender all her art treasures. Now the Germans are whining about the "onerous" terms of the armistice imposed by the Allies and appealing to have them moderated. In this they are running true to form. In the first century after Christ Tacitus, describing the people who lived across the Rhine, wrote: "Craven in defeat, they respect no law, human or divine, in victory."

THOSE WAR ORDERS.

Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, has denied the report given out by The Financial Times of Montreal that Sir Robert Borden will ask for the expenditure of $1,000,000,000 of the indemnity to be exacted from Germany in orders in Canada for reconstruction purposes in the devastated regions of Europe.

There has been no official intimation that Canada will ask for any part of the indemnity to be levied on Germany. Several publicists have pressed for such a course, their estimates running from a billion upwards. They overlook the fact that the restoration of Belgium, France, Italy, Serbia, Montenegro and Roumania and the satisfaction of the claims on account of British and other shipping destroyed by German submarines will limit Germany's capacity to meet further demands for many years.

France says that if Germany paid her what she owes to her she would have to foot a bill for $61,000,000,000, which is $16,000,000,000 less than the whole national wealth of Germany before the war and probably much more than Germany is worth now including everything from the garret to the basement.

No doubt Sir Robert Borden will ask for orders for Canada for $1,000,000,000 or $500,000,000 a year for two years, but these will have to be financed by the Dominion which will advance credits to the countries requiring the goods, or to an international commission representing them, accepting securities in return. Germany in the end, of course, must pay the bill but it will be to the countries directly involved. Probably it was in that sense that the report in our Montreal contemporary was written.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT HAS YIELDED TO COUNCIL OF SOLDIERS AND WORKMEN

in the empire shall be given to Germans appointed by a National Assembly, the rest of the empire should detach itself from Berlin and create a new independent Government "in some place beyond the reach of the arbitrary action of the minority inclined to terrorism."

Declared a Republic.

Copenhagen, Nov. 25.—German newspapers report that the United Workers' and Soldiers' Council has proclaimed Oldenburg, Ostfriesland, Bremen, Hamburg and Schleswig-Holstein a republic. The capital will be at Hamburg.

The districts named comprise all the North Sea coast of Germany from Holland to Denmark. Bremen and Hamburg are the two most important German shipping ports and are free cities. The Kiel Canal traverses Holstein.

Rhine-land.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Via London, Nov. 25.—The movement to withdraw from Germany and create a separate republic is gaining ground rapidly in the Rhine-land, according to reports from Cologne to the Berlin Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts. The movement finds strong support on the part of the Clericals, as a result of the Prussian Government's announcement of its intention to re-establish the church.

Recent events in Berlin also apparently have increased the fears of the Rhinelanders regarding Bolshevism, as a correspondent declares:

"We shall have to reckon with secession as almost unavoidable unless an almost immediate consolidation is reached in Berlin and the date of the election to the Constituent Assembly set with the greatest speed."

"It can not be denied or concealed that the situation becomes more difficult and more dangerous every day," says Theodore Wolf in The Berliner Tageblatt in referring to a statement attributed to Field-Marshal von Hindenburg regarding alleged French plans for the permanent conquest of German territory.

Wolf declares that all South Germany is dissatisfied with conditions in Berlin and is beginning to consider the question of leaving the capital to its fate. He points out that the reported Polish aggression against the eastern borders of Germany may have fatal results in regard to the provisioning of Berlin.

Count Reventlow, in The Tages Zeitung, takes the same standpoint, declaring that only a speedy preliminary peace can prevent a catastrophe.

Council Supreme.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—The Soldiers' and Workers' Council of Greater Kiel has adopted a resolution declaring that all authority must be invested in the Council until the fruits of the revolution can be safeguarded, according to The Red Flag, the newspaper organ of Dr. Liebknecht, the Radical Socialist. The resolution declares that all banks, the principal industries and the great land estates should be national property.

All legislation, it is declared, shall strive in the direction of the social education of the state, in collaboration with the Soldiers' and Workers' Council. The bourgeoisie class is to be excluded.

Ambassadors Quit.

Madrid, Nov. 25.—The German and Austro-Hungarian Ambassadors here have ceased to represent their respective countries, according to the newspapers.

Several Killed.

Stockholm, Nov. 25.—Adherents of the Spartacus group at Berlin attempted on Friday evening to seize the Berlin police presidency. Several persons were killed or injured.

Communication Cut.

Geneva, Nov. 24.—Via London, Nov. 25.—(Havas Agency)—All telegraphic communication between Germany and Switzerland has been stopped. It is believed here that there has been some unusual occurrence in Germany to cause this interruption.

Report About Troops.

Paris, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to The Temps from Berlin says German forces are leaving Berlin in an easterly direction, which fact is believed to have a bearing on the unrest in Poland. Berlin is very disquieted, says The Temps, over the disorders in Posen and East and West Prussia, where councils, consisting exclusively of Poles, have been formed to the exclusion of Germans.

South Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Via Amsterdam, Nov. 25.—The Augsburg Evening Gazette advises the Bavarian Provisional Government to take a positive stand against the Berlin radicals and to threaten the North German terrorists with the secession of Bavaria and other South German states unless they adopt a different policy. The paper states that the opposition of the Berlin Soldiers' and Workers' Council to a democratic republic will not only prove to be a signal for civil war, but also will result in the breaking off of peace negotiations and the entry of Entente troops into Germany. Continuing, it says: "All of South Germany must disengage itself from the Berlin reign of blood and terror and prove to the world that it respects President Wilson's ultimatum: 'No peace with autocracy.'"

In Austria.

Zurich, Nov. 25.—The counter-revolutionary movement in Austria is progressing to such an extent that the National Council has placarded the streets warning the public against it. It is stated that the monarchists are resorting to all kinds of methods to excite distrust of the Council and trying to frighten the people by the prospect of Allied occupation, according to a Vienna dispatch to The Frankfort Gazette.

Hapsburg Speaks.

Vienna, Nov. 24.—Via London, Nov. 25.—Former Emperor Charles, in the course of an interview with the Associated Press to-day, declared that the situation at Vienna and throughout Austria was so grave that not a single day should be lost by the Allies in helping the people here. He insisted on the danger of Bolshevism unless the country was revolutionized as quickly as possible.

Liebknecht's Activity.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—(Via London, Nov. 25.)—(Associated Press.)—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the radical Socialist leader, is devoting himself primarily to an effort to influence the men returning from the front. His henchmen comprise a small army of Red soldiers who are accused of packing meetings to push through measures to embarrass the Government.

Dr. Liebknecht's agitation is the official propaganda of the Spartacus group of extreme radicals. He chiefly directs his attacks at the proposed National Assembly. The intention, however, of his effort to win over the returning soldiers has failed. Yesterday's meetings were marked by violent opposition of soldiers.

The radical leader's principal appeal is to the proletariat. Rosa Luxemburg is ably seconding Dr. Liebknecht. Her oratory is of the eloquent and fire-eating brand. The Spartacus group meetings are attended by numerous men.

Philip Schidemann, in the Vorwaerts, declares that the insecurity of the Government may be deduced from the undisturbed activity of the Spartacus faction, "who are endeavoring to win over the soldiers for Bolshevism."

An attempted robbery recently of 60,000 marks belonging to the treasury of Field-Marshal von Mackensen's army is charged against the Spartacus faction. When the car containing the funds reached the railway station here a few days ago it was taken over by a detachment of red-badged soldiers. Notwithstanding apologies to the effect that a misunderstanding was responsible for the attempted seizure, the Red Guards were arrested.

Their arrest occasioned considerable resentment among the ultra radicals. They held a meeting, which was addressed by Dr. Liebknecht, and organized for the rescue. A squad raided police headquarters on Thursday night, and succeeded in obtaining the release of the men implicated on the pretext that they were held as political prisoners.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Mince Pie

Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

Once upon a time, when it was almost Thanksgiving in Woodland by the Orange Ice Mountains, where lived Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, once upon a time, Nurse Jane Puzzy Wuxxy, his muskrat lady housekeeper, said:

"I think I'll make a mince pie."

"Oh, joy!" cried Uncle Wiggily, who heard her just as he was twinkling his pink, twinkling nose, and putting an extra polish on his tall silk hat, before he went out for a walk. "Do make a mince pie, Nurse Jane, and we'll have it for Thanksgiving."

"I will," said the muskrat lady, "but you will have to go to the store and get me some things I need to make the pie with."

"Right gladly will I go!" exclaimed the bunny uncle. "What do you want?"

"Oh, I want some raisins, some currants, a bit of citron, some apples, some pears, a little lemon or two, some soft tender juicy meat, sweet cider and some other things."

"Say!" cried Uncle Wiggily—as he finished writing down, on a bit of white birch bark for paper, the things Nurse Jane named, "say, that is going to be a SOME pie!"

"Well, Thanksgiving comes but once in November, and we should make it a feast to remember," said Nurse Jane with a smile at the little verse he made up by her own self.

Off through the woods hurried Uncle Wiggily, now hopping, now skipping and now jumping, and, all of a sudden, he met Floppy Twistytail, the little piggy boy.

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Floppy.

"I am going to the store to get things so Nurse Jane can make a mince pie for Thanksgiving," answered the bunny uncle.

"What things do you have to have to make a mince pie?" the piggy boy wanted to know.

So Uncle Wiggily, looking at what he had written on the piece of white birch bark, said:

"Nurse Jane wants some raisins, some currants, a bit of citron, some apples, some pears, a little lemon or two, some soft tender juicy meat, sweet cider and some other things."

"Oh, that is going to be a most delicious Thanksgiving mince pie," exclaimed Floppy, hungry like.

"I think so myself," said Uncle Wiggily, and then he hurried on to the store and Floppy hurried on to school.

store and Floppy hurried on to school, and the bad old Pipsesewah, who was hiding in the bushes, he hurried on to Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, the bad old Pipsesewah did.

"What's that? Didn't I tell you about him before? Well, I meant to say, the bad old Pipsesewah was hiding in the bushes, hoping to catch Uncle Wiggily, and when he heard the bunny uncle telling Floppy about the mince pie the Pipsesewah said to himself:

"Ha, ha! Now is my chance! I'll hurry home ahead of Mr. Longears. I'll hide under his front stoop and when he comes along, with his paws full of the mince pie bundles, I'll jump out at him, holler 'Boo!' as loud as anything, and then I'll bite some off his ears. That's what I'll do."

So, while Uncle Wiggily was getting the things for the Thanksgiving mince pie, the Pipsesewah hid under the hollow stump bungalow front stoop.

Home came the bunny, smiling, happy and contented because it was so near Thanksgiving. His paws were full of bundles of things he had bought at the store. As he reached

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Social Personal

S. W. Hinsdale, secretary of the Workmen's Compensation Board, Vancouver, and Mrs. Hinsdale, have been visiting in the city for the past three days and will return to the Mainland to-night.

On Friday evening at "Breadalbane" the Rev. Capt. Campbell celebrated the marriage of Herbert Earl Johns and Miss Elsie Janet Turnbull, both of Victoria. The groom was accompanied by Joseph Tighe, and the bride was attended by Miss Agnes Ruggles.

Mrs. L. M. Printer, of "Olive Dene," Malvern Road, Gloucester, England, announces the engagement of her daughter, Olive Mary, to Kenneth Bright Cherrett, R.N.C.V.R., Halifax, N.S. (formerly of H. M.C.S. Rainbow), only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cherrett, Hillside, Park Road, West Hartlepool, England.

At St. Barnabas Church on Saturday, November 16, Miss Madge Victor Bannerman, second daughter of Alderman Alex. M. and Mrs. Bannerman, of Victoria, became the bride of Robert James Hurst, manager of the furniture department of Weller's, Ltd. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest G. Miller.

At the minister's residence, "Breadalbane," 1185 Fort Street, on Saturday evening, Capt. the Rev. Dr. Campbell, in the presence of a few intimate friends of the principals, solemnized the marriage of James Brown Rodgers and Miss Violet Amy Eve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Eve, of Harrison Street, Victoria. Miss Dorothy Cooke was in attendance on the bride, and Alexander Mackay acted as groomsmen.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. Hansen, 1131 Esquimalt Road, Esquimalt, on Saturday last, in the presence of a number of intimate friends, when Miss Anna Bella McQueen Thomson, daughter of William Thomson and Mrs. Thomson, Dundee, Scotland, was united in marriage to Adam McBeath, son of the late Alexander McBeath, Fraserburgh, Scotland, and Mrs. MacBeath. Mrs. Lizzie Hansen was matron-of-honor, while William Angus supported the groom. The Misses Jean Hansen and Anna Scott made very charming flower girls. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Gregory Hansen, was daintily gowned in white and blue silk. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and chrysanthemums. Rev. Dr. H. N. Maclean, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Naval and Military Church, Victoria, West, officiated.

his front stoop Uncle Wiggily saw Nurse Jane waiting for him, and sort of in fun, he asked her:

"What are you going to do with the mince pie, Nurse Wuxxy?"

"Chop 'em up! Chop 'em up for the mince pie," she answered.

"And what are you going to do with the citron?"

"Chop it up! Chop it up for the mince pie."

"And what are you going to do with the apples?"

"Chop 'em up! Chop 'em up!" she said.

Just then the bad old Pipsesewah stuck out his head, and Uncle Wiggily saw him, and before he knew what he was doing the bunny asked Nurse Jane:

"And what will you do with the bad Pipsesewah?"

"Chop his up! Chop him up!" answered the muskrat lady savage like.

"Oh, not please don't! I don't want to be made into a mince pie!" cried the bad creature. "Don't chop me up!" And, thinking something terrible would happen him, away he ran, leaving the bunny safely alone.

And Mr. Longears was very glad, and Nurse Jane made the mince pie, and if the coconut doesn't fall out of the apple dumpling and bounce on the head of the stairs, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the turkey.

Mrs. Colin Cummins Bereaved.—News was received in the city this morning to the effect that Reginald Cummins, the only surviving son of Mrs. Colin Cummins, of Victoria, passed away at Trux, Sask., yesterday, succumbing to pneumonia following an attack of influenza.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Cummins was called to Trux from Seattle, where she had been nursing her daughter Marjorie, leaving the Sound city on Friday morning and arriving at Trux in time to be with her son when he died. The late Mr. Trux survived by his widow, his mother and sisters.

Was a Revelation.

"A white light was thrown on the living conditions of industrial workers as never before. The very life of the nation could only be safeguarded by industry's output of weapons. The places where industrial workers had to find their meals and their recreations were thrown out on the screen of the public mind and found to be crying shames of humanity. The women of the leisure classes of England threw themselves whole-heartedly into a betterment of conditions. They opened canteens, community kitchens, nurseries and provided healthful recreation for the after-work hours," declares Mrs. Brougham.

What is the big point, then that now when the war is over Mrs. Brougham wants to draw from these thoughts? It is this: All the effort which these women of the leisure class have contributed—and it has been one of the strongest resources of the war, should be continued now, and not diverted or stopped. Their contributions have proved of great practical value to the world, as statistics of the returned wounded from the western front proved, where women's effort and influence were greatest, in contrast to the fatalities in the Near East, where the works of mercy were not carried in such measure.

Mrs. Brougham spoke at several meetings last week in Seattle.

Police Dance.—The series of dances conducted by the Victoria Police Force before the influenza ban put an end to public meetings, will be resumed this evening. Dancing will commence in the hall over the station at half-past eight and will continue until half-past eleven, the music being supplied by Oswald's Orchestra. As this is the first evening of the kind since the lifting of the ban a large crowd is expected.

LEISURED WOMEN'S DUTY TO SOCIETY

Mrs. Grace Manners Brougham Presents a New Aspect of Question

"The leisure classes are the ones that receive the benefit of all endeavors in every community, and it has been the fashion for these people to spend the greater part of their time in pleasure seeking, which has created such a large proportion of waste that it set the standard for those less fortunate classes," says Mrs. Grace Manners Brougham, in an interview in The Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Mrs. Brougham, who is a sister of Guy Manners, the poet, is visiting Seattle, and discusses in an interview the position of the leisured women of England who have during the war engaged in national endeavors. "I want them to direct their eyes to the same units of humanity to which they have rendered such splendid service during the war, and which have in turn served them. If they find out in their gratitude that they may alleviate some of the oppressive conditions in industrial life, will they not be repaid?" she asks. They would contribute to a real constructive condition, and do away to great extent with crime, sin and disease. When homes and living conditions are not of the right kind, dissensions and anarchy are bred.

The crux of all this for all nations is the standard of womanhood and of the home, she says. She points to what was the degraded status of womanhood in India and in Turkey. There is no unit of the home where there is the harem, she says. The world must be made safe for a real democracy.

"We people behind the lens, who have been saved, people whose standards have not been affected by the menace that threatened the world, we now have a great work to do," she emphasized. The new phase, the real hope of the war is yet to be realized. The command for this army back of the lines to move forward has come. The warp and woof of the best in civilization must give its contribution to the strength of finest manhood and the spiritual perceptions and tenderness of woman."

Was a Revelation.

GOOD NEWS

Mrs. Ash to Get a Pension of Seventy-Two Dollars Per Month.

Readers of The Times will remember the particularly distressing circumstances surrounding the death of Private Ash, who came back from overseas, rejected for service on account of over age.

By the generous response of Victorians a sum of money sufficient to meet the needs of the widow and family was made available.

The news this morning, however, that the Board of Pension Commissioners had seen fit to grant Mrs. Ash a monthly pension of seventy-two dollars will be welcome. A cheque has also been issued covering the application of the pension over several months. She has several young children to bring up.

Police Dance To-night, 8:30 to 11:30. Oswald's Orchestra. Invitation only.

ESQUIMALT CHILDREN RESUME THEIR STUDIES

After nearly two months' holiday, the pupils of the Esquimalt Schools resumed their studies once more this morning, though the children of the city, Saanich and Oak Bay, are still enjoying a vacation necessitated by the influenza epidemic.

The classes at the Lampton Street School were attended this morning by about seventy-five per cent of the regular pupils, but it is anticipated that a large proportion of the balance will be on hand to-morrow. Influenza is extremely rare among the children of the municipality, and it is believed that few of the absentees are suffering from illness. There was also a noticeable absence of coughs and colds among the pupils who attended at the opening.

A Meeting of the Comrades of the Great War will be held to-night at the clubrooms, Government and Yates Street, at 8 o'clock.

Taken to Oakalla.—Facing the serious charge of procuring Rene Larin was taken to Oakalla Prison to-day by Detective Macdonald, following his commitment for trial in the Police Court Saturday morning.

Soldiers Returning.—The B. C. Returned Soldiers Commission, Parliament Buildings, has been advised by telegram from the O. C. Clearing Depot, St. John, N. B., that the following party of Victorians were numbered among the men arriving there on November 22 and probably left St. John on Saturday: Lieut. C. H. Orpen, Redoubt; J. A. Lattuga, 2523 Bridge Street; F. J. H. Sargent, 416 Luxton Street; and J. Thornburn, Esquimalt.

Military Medal Man.—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gibson, of Esquimalt Road, have received from their son, Cadet Frederick E. Gibson, the Military Medal which he won in January at Hill 70. Cadet Gibson, who is a native son of Victoria, left with the 103rd Battalion. He was serving with the 7th Battalion when he received his medal. Since being decorated he transferred to the Royal Air Force.

SAYS COMRADES ARE NOT READY TO MERGE

Secretary of Service Men's Organizations Takes Exception to Report

Regarding the statement made in the British Columbia Weekly, and published in The Times on Friday of a possible amalgamation of the Comrades of the Great War and the Great War Veterans Association, J. G. Bloom, as Secretary of the Comrades, makes the announcement that no intention exists among the members of the Comrades of the Great War to amalgamate with the Great War Veterans Association. "We have no quarrel whatever with the Great War Veterans," he is careful to point out, "and will work harmoniously with them on the many subjects that come up affecting the welfare of the returned soldier. We have done so in the past and will continue to do so, but as far as the statement that indications are becoming plentiful every day that we are prepared to amalgamate, there is no justification for the comment at all."

"The Comrades of the Great War is formed to gather the returned men together for social purposes, sport, and anything of that nature with, of course, always a watchful eye for anything they can do for the veterans in civilian life, and is always ready to take up the cudgels on behalf of the soldier. It is non-political absolutely, and attempts to introduce politics are immediately nipped in the bud, as tending to defeat the aim for which the Association was formed. We intend to remain a separate association, and have never entertained any idea of losing our identity. In fact, we have several times turned down the suggestion of uniting with any other service organization."

RETURNED HOME TO-DAY

LIEUT.-COL. A. BRUCE POWLEY

After returning to Victoria with wounds received in France he formed the 143rd Battalion, C. E. F., which, as O. C., he took over to England. The men he gathered together, and trained at Beacon Hill Park, have since won high praise for their work on the battlefields.

GERMANS PLANNED TO BLOW UP BRUSSELS PALACE OF JUSTICE

Paris, Nov. 25.—The Germans had laid plans to blow up the Palace of Justice in Brussels, according to a dispatch to The Star from Brussels. In the cellar of the Palace four infernal machines, placed there by the Germans, have been found close to some gunpowder and ammunition.

C. P. R. ACCIDENTS.

Revelstoke, Nov. 25.—The derailling of a car in the Lewis Tunnel, just east of Revelstoke, on Sunday afternoon, delayed C. P. R. train No. 1 for three hours.

A box car on a C. P. R. freight train jumped the track between Tofino and Three Valleys, just west of Revelstoke, on Sunday, resulting in complete destruction. No one was injured and no other damage done.

IRRITABLE NERVES RESTORED AND HEALTH REGAINED IN A SIMPLE WAY

The man or woman who is run-down, not feeling up to the mark, perhaps irritable, nervous or sleepless can well afford to learn about the wonderful results the newly discovered blood-food is giving to folks that use it.

There is a wonderful power in this new blood-food, and every weak, pallid person can be quickly nourished back to health that uses it as directed. After each meal, with a sip or two of water, you simply take two little chocolate-coated tablets, sold in all drug stores under the name of "FERROZONE."

The effect is noticeable at once. You feel happier, brighter, more contented. That old-time feeling of weariness departs—you forget your "nerves" and no longer get irritable or cross over trifling annoyances.

There is a reason for this change and that reason consists of the fact that Ferrozone contains blood-making materials you can get in no other way. Ferrozone makes the blood—single and pure—gives it new vitality. It secures lots of nourishment and strength being supplied to every part of the body.

No wonder the eyes brighten and the cheeks radiate color and happiness. With abundance of strength, keen appetite, good digestion and plenty of sound sleep—all the result of Ferrozone—you quickly feel as if life held new charms and pleasures.

AUTOMOBILE TURNED TURTLE IN COLLISION

When his automobile turned turtle on Saturday as a result of a collision, Frederick Mellor received painful cuts about the head, and Detective Heather, of the Victoria Police, who was also a passenger in the car, suffered some nasty scratches to his face.

Mr. Mellor, who was driving to town, had picked up Detective Heather and a young lady, one of his neighbors, and, as he approached the corner of Hillside Avenue and Quadra Street, an automobile driven by F. H. Stephenson, loomed up suddenly. Before Mr. Stephenson could lessen the speed of his big car it rammed that driven by Mr. Mellor, overturning it. The occupants of the vehicle were pinned to the ground, but, by a great effort, Detective Heather was able to lift the car and help them to escape. The young woman was unhurt, but Mr. Mellor received a severe cut in his scalp, while Detective Heather was scratched about the face. The chief victim of the accident was taken to the Royal Jubilee Hospital, where his injuries received attention.

A NEW WESTMINSTER DEATH.

New Westminster, Nov. 25.—George Munday, a stationary engineer and a resident here for forty years, died in the Royal Columbian Hospital yesterday. He was a well-known athlete in his early days and also served as an alderman and took an active part in public affairs. He leaves three sons, Charles, Harold and Jack, the last overseas, and two daughters, Cora and Minnie, besides a large number of brothers and sisters. Two of his brothers, Matthew and Harry, went overseas and the latter was killed in action a year ago.

SEARCH FOR GERMANS.

New York, Nov. 25.—The passengers on the Danish steamship Oscar II, which arrived here on Saturday, were searched both at Halifax and at the entrance of this port, it was learned to-day. There was a suspicion that some of the minor royal refugees from Germany might be on board in disguise. No announcement was made that any German was discovered.

Jap Silk Makes Ideal Blouses for Office Wear

EVERY girl at business endeavors to appear neat and well-tailored. How to do so economically seems quite a problem to the girl on a moderate salary. Blouses which will not launder are not practical. They soil easily and cleaning is expensive.

D'Alaird's
BLOUSES

The D'Alaird Blouse Shop specializes in Jap Silk Blouses, the most satisfactory and economical for office wear. A wide choice of smart New York designs are shown, many with perfectly fitting convertible collars. That these blouses may be easily laundered at home is decidedly in their favor. Wrung out in a towel and ironed wet, they will reappear fresh and new.

The blouse illustrated (No. 646) is a dainty design of durable Jap Silk in white, flesh, maize and black. The collar is particularly well tailored, the snug buttoned cuffs turn back. This blouse is finished with hemstitching and fine pearl buttons and its price is only $4.50. All sizes 34 to 48.

RIVALS PLAY TO DRAW IN KEEN LEADERSHIP FIGHT

Yarrows Make Big Jump in League Table; Garrison and Lancaster Also Improve Standing as Result of Last Games

The eyes of all soccer followers for the last series of games in the city competition were turned towards the game between the big rivals and leaders in the fight for the trophy, Fragments From France and the Victoria West Brotherhood, Island and City champions respectively, and both with an equal number of points to their credit on the league chart. A hard struggle resulted in a game in which not a single goal was scored, and the Wests still have an advantage of having played one less game than the returned men. Yarrows jumped five rungs up the ladder by their win over James Island, and the Garrison, who are showing a big improvement in their play recently, bagged a couple of points at the expense of the Navy and put themselves only one point behind the two leading teams. Two points were recorded by the Lancaster men, who only want to catch up on their games to make the fight for the cup become a hot, four-cornered event between the Wests, Fragments, Garrison, and the Lancaster.

Victoria West Brotherhood v. Fragments.

Two games were played, one in the Intermediate League between Foundation (5) and Yarrows (1), and the Senior League fixture between Victoria West Brotherhood and the Fragments, and there was some confusion at times caused by the referee's whistle at one game being heard by the players in the other game.

The Senior League fixture was a fast game, and although the Fragments did most of the pressing it ended in a goalless draw. Owing to the Wests being a little late the game did not commence until 3 p. m. Bob Whyte for the Wests was the only one to take a little benefit from the wind gave. Kicking off, the Fragments at once pressed and forced a corner which was successfully cleared. The pressure was kept up, but Copas and Whyte were sound, Shandley being able easily to deal with those that reached him.

The Fragments successfully held the West forwards, the halves doing yeoman work in which they were ably supported by Gorman and Townsend. The few times the Brotherhood got away they were dangerous, Thomas and McKinnon especially needing attention. A splendid save from a long shot, just tipping it over the bar. Another time he cleared with a mighty kick to the centre, which, bouncing out of play, rolled on for two blocks. All it reached was Government Street. From a free kick Shandley took a hot shot by Singlehurst. Half-time arrived with both teams playing hard, but mostly in the West's territory.

The second half was almost a repetition of the first, the pressure being an impenetrable defence. The Fragments' half-backs played a hard game and hardly ever let the Wests through. Copas and Whyte had a lot to do and did it splendidly. Ferris played a hard game and watched McIlroy like a hawk; his team mate Sherratt was similarly watched by Singlehurst. Towards the end of the game Copas and Townsend changed places, but to no effect. The Wests' defence proved invincible, and a keen and exciting game was brought to a close without either side scoring.

Garrison Get the Points.

Continuing to show the improved form which has marked their play in the last two or three games, the Garrison beat the Navy on the Cañon grounds by a score of two goals to nothing. Although the sailors had the advantage of the wind in the first half they failed to score, ones put in a hard well-placed shot for the Garrison, which Jasper could not handle. The Navy men played good football in the second half, but could not get one between the posts. From a corner taken by Lloyd, Filmore netted the second for the big gunners. The last named player, who was making his re-appearance as centre forward for the soldiers, played a speedy game throughout, and the way of placing the ball with the weight behind it that assures goals.

Yarrows First Win.

A strong cross wind spoiled the play in the game between Yarrows and James Island. The shipyard men got through a couple in the first half and there was no score for the remainder of the game. Baker put through the first goal seven minutes after play started, and Unwin headed in from a corner for a second just before half time.

Lancaster Unbeatable.

The soccer enthusiasts of the Lancaster again proved unbeatable in their game with the Imperial Munitions' Board. The sailors had the Munition workers beaten from the outset and there was never any doubt as to the result of the game. Before the final whistle went they had found the net three times, and the I. M. B. failed to make a rally.

ANOTHER CHANCE AT CANADIAN CHAMPION

Seattle, Nov. 25.—Joe Miller, the San Francisco lightweight, who lost a hair-line decision to Harry Anderson at the benefit smoker, will be given another crack at the popular sailor boxer tomorrow. This bout was added to the Crystal Pool card after frequent requests for a return were made by local fans.

Billy Wright meets Johnny Volcott, the hard-hitting Michigan boy, and brother of the ex-champ, in the other half of the main event.

CHAMPION FIGHTS FOR PEACHES AND A FEW BISCUITS

Popular Footballer, Swimmer and Boxer Writes Interesting Letter

Private Al. McKinnon, with two British Columbia championships to his record, one as a speed swimmer and one in the ring, in addition to being one of the star soccer players on the Mainland before he enlisted in Victoria with the 103rd Bait, Timber Wolves, writes an interesting letter from hospital in England. With humor glistering in every line McKinnon, who has carried off the Brigade Championship, while he has been away, tells how sport for sport's sake is the main attraction for the boys in khaki in France. Extracts from his letter read as follows:

"You will probably know, through the 'red headed McKinnon,' that I've 'stopped one' at last—a bullet came through the right knee and never touched a bone. How it managed it the doctors can't understand, as it has gone clean through and came out at the elbow—lucky!

However, it is nearly better now, except for a bit stiff and soreness when I try and do anything strenuous with it. I don't think it should interfere with the athletic side of it much, but boxing may be a bit too heavy. I'm going to have a try and get back into shape, however, when I can.

I haven't done much at it in France, and anything I have done was without training. The old story—want a fellow to do all parades and then box beside. Won Championship.

I managed to get the 145-lb. Brigade Championship this summer, but couldn't go any further, as I got K.O. by the 'flu.' The day I got it (the boxing I mean), I paraded in the morning and had to tramp six miles in the afternoon to fight. I was down for six seconds in the second round, but got my Scotch blood up and had him pretty groggy at the finish.

The other fight I had was against a sergeant out of another battalion, and well, a sergeant, that's enough! I got the decision and fifteen francs, which got two tins of peaches, ditto milk and a sack of biscuits. Believe me, Tom, Andy Mitchell (he and I were pals at the time) nearly fainted when I walked in with my arms full of 'tats.' He also intimated that he didn't see why I shouldn't fight every week. Some old Andy, eh?

Football and Swimming.

I've had some games—football—for the battalion team, but my heart wasn't in it same as the old St. Andrew's, of Vancouver, ah, me, them was the days!

Also had quite a few swims out there, but never the same speed as the Drill Hall in Victoria.

Gus McKinnon, 54th Battalion, killed this summer. P.S.—This is the first scratch I've got, and I've been through everything since we went out, December, 1916. Pretty good to get a 'cushy one' after that. It usually a 'napoo' the old-timers are rewarded with.

MAINLAND SOCCER RULES TO GOVERN UNRULY PLAYERS

Soccer eleven in Vancouver will engage in the first round of the Mainland Challenge Cup competition Saturday, January 12, it was decided at a meeting of the Lower Mainland executive of the British Columbia Football Association held last evening.

The two Cameron boys, "Bob" and "Charlie," were reported for insubordination. The former was suspended until September 1, 1919, while the latter case was dismissed.

George K. Morton was appointed to act as secretary in place of Gus Wilson, who has resigned. Messrs. Tait and Carpenter were appointed delegates to the governing provincial body, while a ruling was also made that a player ordered off the field stands suspended until his case is dealt with.

LEAGUE AND FRIENDLY RUGBY GAMES SATURDAY

In the Intermediate rugby game Saturday the Naval Cadets obtained an easy decision over the V. I. A. A. team by beating them by eighteen points to all, the score being made up of one placed goal, two tries, one dropped goal from field and one dropped goal from free kick. The Cadets were superior throughout the game, a feature of which was some clever work by Pentelow. The teams were as follows:

Naval College: Pentelow, Cundill, Roy, Ryall and Pickard; Richardson and Brock; Mitchell, Kingsley, Budden, Desbarats, Lee, Myers, Smith and McIntosh.

V. I. A. A.—Lineham; Matson, Robinson, Webster and Lineham; Streeter and Gropp; Bale, Andrews, Abiet, Blythe, Riley, Kennedy and Bainbridge.

With no senior game on the cards the Foundation Company played a friendly game with the University and won by two points. Haggie crossed the line for the University in the first half. Sprinkling made the try for the shipyard men, Honeychurch converting.

ST. ANDREW'S ATHLETES.

The first meeting since the lifting of the ban of the St. Andrew's Church Athletic Association is set for to-night at 8 o'clock in the lecture hall.

The Association had just got well started when the influenza stopped progress, but since the meetings were stopped hot showers have been installed and much work done for preparing for the busy basketball season expected on W. Duncan, President of the club, has asked that all interested in basketball should be present at the meeting.

The sports programme of the club also comprises running and it is hoped to get an attendance representative of the different branches of sport.

HOCKEY MEETING IS SET FOR FRIDAY NEXT

Victoria, Vancouver, Portland and Seattle to Be Represented

Whether the Pacific Coast Hockey Association will operate this season with three or four clubs will be determined in Vancouver next Friday, when the eighth annual meeting will be held. President Frank Patrick has issued a call for the delegates to gather, and it is expected that Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and Victoria will be represented.

Plans for the season will be discussed, officers elected, and the date for the opening games decided. The first contests will probably be scheduled early next January.

President Patrick anticipates no difficulty lining up players for the championship race. He says that the brand of hockey displayed will be quite up to the standard of former seasons whether only three or four clubs are competing for the title.

VICTORIA INCLUDED ON AUTO CIRCUIT FOR RECESS IN MAY

Robert A. Miller, president and manager of the Northwest Auto Racing Association, is now arranging the auto racing circuit for next year, which will include events at Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., Spokane, Walla Walla and Yakima, Wash., Portland and Salem, Ore., Boise, Idaho; Missoula, Anaconda and Helena, Mont., and other probable points. The scheduled opening will occur on May 24. The Northwest Auto Racing Association recently elected Robert A. Miller president and manager, W. A. Hartung, treasurer; John E. Malowe, of Spokane, vice-president. The Board of Directors include Robert A. Miller, W. A. Hartung, of Seattle; John E. Malowe and Clinton McCordick, of Spokane; and J. W. Pilling, of Vancouver, B. C.

TWO GAMES PLAYED IN INTERMEDIATE SOCCER

The first two games in the Intermediate Soccer League were played Saturday, with the Victoria Military Hospital team, and the Foundation Company bagging the points. The Foundation Company has a strong team entered, and has started off in a manner that would indicate it will secure one trophy to go in the case which the shipyard men say they will fill by the end of the season. The team registered five goals in the game against Yarrows, and their opponents only managed to pierce the defence once.

The Hospital team showed good form against the Garrison, and carried off the honors by a score of three goals to nothing. The league table opens as follows:

	P.	W.	L.	Pts.
Victoria Mil. Hospital	1	1	0	2
Foundation	1	1	0	2
Garrison	1	0	1	0
Yarrows	1	0	1	0

SUGGESTS TEN ROUND GO FOR FIGHTERS

In the course of a letter to the Sporting Editor "an old sport" says: "Many of the old sports of Victoria would like to see Private McIntyre and Roy Carter meet in the roofed arena. I feel that ten-round fight between these two daisy fighters would be a lively go, and a good drawing card."

FURTHER PROPOSALS.

Vancouver, Nov. 25.—H. H. Stevens, M.P., of Vancouver, vice-president of the Aero Club of Canada, has been advised by the Aerial League of the British Empire that an aeronautical advisory committee is being formed to advise and co-operate with the Government in aerial affairs. Mr. Stevens has consented to become a member of this committee. He stated to-day that the Aero Club of Canada had urged on the Government the importance of establishing an aerial force for the Dominion, particularly for coast defence.

INFLUENZA AT TORONTO.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—There are still 288 patients under treatment for influenza in the various hospitals. About fifteen of these were admitted over the week-end. Two deaths are reported since Saturday.

MOONEY CASE.

Seattle, Nov. 25.—A resolution urging Governor Stephens to grant a conditional pardon to Thomas J. Mooney was adopted yesterday by the executive council of the Washington State Federation of Labor.

ARE PREPARING FOR PEACE CONFERENCE

Allies Taking Steps; Restriction of Submarine Operations Being Discussed

Paris, Nov. 24.—(Associated Press.)—Restriction of submarine operations during war against merchant ships so as to prevent attacks like that which caused the sinking of the Lusitania doubtless will be prepared in the discussion at the peace congress of the "freedom of the seas" question. It is the view of leading naval authorities who have examined this branch of the subject that submarine operations should be limited to attacks on warships forming the regular part of a navy. Attacks would be prohibited against merchant ships, either passenger or freight, and the armed defensively or otherwise. According to this view, submarines would continue to be an arm of the naval services of the nations, but their operations would be confined strictly to naval warfare. This and many other subjects come before the Peace Congress are

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

The enormous increase of cost of everything that is a contributing factor in the production of a daily newspaper, together with the latest announcement of the paper manufacturers that the price of newspaper print has been advanced no less than $21.00 per ton, or nearly 25 per cent, makes it absolutely imperative that the subscription rate of The Times be raised from 60c. to 75c. per month, and this will take effect on and after December 1.

The Times, in common with other newspapers throughout the Dominion and the United States, has been placed under a tremendous handicap during the four years of war. Metal, type, ink and the thousand-and-one things that must be used every day, have been raised in price from time to time until at present they can be purchased only at almost prohibitive prices, the increase over pre-war costs being in some cases one hundred per cent. The increase in the cost of paper alone means an addition to The Times' operating expenses of over thirteen thousand dollars a year.

The Times is taking this step reluctantly and unwillingly, and only after the problem of taking care of increased production costs has become almost unbearable. It is hoped that our subscribers will realize the absolute necessity of the change, while we, on our part, will do everything possible to maintain the efficiency and reliability of our local, Canadian, and world news service, so as to make The Times more than ever the home paper of Victoria.

The tenders for repairs to the British barque Harold were opened this morning. The contract will probably be awarded Monday. The sale of sealskins at Lamson's, London, will take place on Wednesday next, and the sealing owners look for cable advices on the afternoon of that day. A prominent owner this morning said he believed that the skins would net $13 apiece.

now in a formative state, as it will be some time, perhaps a fortnight, before the regular sittings of the Inter-Allied Conferences are resumed to arrange the preliminaries of the congress.

In the meantime, none of the British, Italian or other foreign delegates are here except Col. E. M. House, the American representative, who is confined to his bed with a gripe. Several members of his staff also are down with the epidemic.

But those charged with preliminaries are going ahead and diplomats are actively discussing various phases of the big questions ahead. In January, according to information from one quarter, negotiations for the signing of the preliminaries of peace cannot commence before early in January. The discussion will take about a month and a half, so that the signing of the protocol probably will not occur before the end of February. This will necessitate a renewal of the armistice, which expires on December 17, unless extended before that time.

Previous to the January sittings of the congress, however, the Inter-Allied Conference, with hold sessions during December, in which President Wilson will take part. Active preparations for the peace congress are shown in the requisition of a large number of the most important hotels in Paris for accommodation of the extensive staffs of the British, French, American, Italian and other delegates. In all, some twenty-five of the largest hotels in Paris have been taken, creating a great stringency in hotel accommodations, so that army and navy officers and men are finding the greatest difficulty in securing quarters.

Marshal Foch is reported to have said he will give no heed to protests of the German armistice delegates made through communications from Minister Solf, concerning the manner of carrying out the armistice. This reply doubtless will cover any further petitions that may be made by the Germans.

In the course of her testimony, it was stated that Pion had come to their home and offered to secure exemption for the son providing they paid $2,000 cash. They did not accept the terms immediately, but wrote to Pion some time later and agreed to pay him $1,000 in cash and the balance in six months. Pion had endeavored several times to get the young man to come to Quebec and meet him at the Neptune Inn, but the young man refused, fearing that he might be taken up by the military authorities. One evening Pion had come to their house accompanied by Guay and the latter said that they might be trusted.

Guay had later come to Quebec to secure the exemption card for his son. Some time later, or about August 20, Edouard Vezina was notified by military authorities to report, and they then discovered that the card which Pion and Guay had given was false. Young Vezina had duly reported and after medical examination was exempted. Mrs. Vezina said that when her husband and herself discovered that the card received from Pion was worthless they did not pay any money.

All is well that ends according to your own diagram of the finish.

A HELPING HAND

Government Asked by Veterans Why There is Difference in Clothing Allowance Between Soldier and Sailor.

In an endeavor to find out the reason for discrimination in the matter of clothing allowance made to the sailor on discharge, who gets $12 as against $25 paid to a member of the junior service, the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada has organized a general protest to Ottawa.

On Friday last the following wire was sent to the Minister of Marine and Naval Service:

"Protest very strongly re clothing allowance awarded to sailors on discharge. Have information that ten men recently discharged received an order for $12, which is absolutely inadequate. Soldiers receive $25; why cannot sailors be treated the same?"

To strengthen the hand of the Army and Navy Veterans, the Victoria Board of Trade, the Rotary Club, the Real Estate Exchange, Win-the-War League, the Great War Veterans' Association and the Comrades of the Great War were appealed to an all gave their support to the plea for uniform treatment.

Messages were also sent to Premier Oliver and Dr. Tolmie, M.P., in Ottawa, asking that they join forces and place the matter before the proper authorities at the National Capital.

Columbia Women's Auxiliary.—The postponed quarterly meeting of the Diocesan Women's Auxiliary will be held at Christ Church Cathedral School on Friday, November 29, at 4.30 p. m. Adjournment will be made for supper at 6.30, and the meeting resumed in the evening at 7.30 p. m. The reports of the triennial meeting at Winnipeg will be given also reports from the Girls' branches. Saturday, St. Andrew's Day, will be observed as usual as a day of intercession for missions.

S. P. C. A. Bazaar.—Owing to delays caused by the influenza, the bazaar advertised previously on behalf of the S. P. C. A. (aided by the Blue Cross) will take the form of a Christmas sale. Within the next week, intending donors are asked to kindly leave articles for sale at the Blue Cross Room, Belmont House, where they will be sold, by courtesy of the Blue Cross Committee. It is hoped that a goodly sum will be raised during December, in aid of the local S. P. C. A., which is greatly in need of funds.

A Meeting of the J. Unit Chapter, I. O. O. F., will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 8 p. m., Arcade Building. All members are asked to attend in order to pay their dues and discuss the renewed business.

RESPECTED PIONEER GOES TO LAST REST

William Lorimer Passes Away Day After Daughter's Death

The death occurred at the Jubilee Hospital, yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, of William Lorimer, one of Victoria's well-known and most respected residents. Deceased had only been ill a week, having suffered from an attack of pneumonia, followed by a stroke of paralysis last Thursday, from which he failed to recover.

A sad circumstance in connection with Mr. Lorimer's death is that he was only on Saturday bereaved by the loss of his youngest daughter. He had hoped to live long enough to greet his three sons, Robert, Walter and Sam on their return from service overseas.

Mrs. F. S. Widdowson and Mrs. F. A. Jackson are daughters of the deceased, and there are two other sons here, William A. Lorimer and James Lorimer. A grandson, Bailey Jackson, is at present serving overseas, and deceased leaves eight other grandchildren.

Born at Uddington, near Glasgow, on February 20, 1846, the late William Lorimer came to Victoria in the spring of the year 1870, leaving shortly afterward for Nanaimo for the purpose of building the trail from Nanaimo to Alberni, which has since become one of the most popular highways of Vancouver Island.

On completion of this work he returned to Victoria and his home has been in this city ever since. For a long time he was foreman-pattern maker for the Albion Iron Works. Later he engaged in the contracting business, and among the buildings which he erected were the Dallas Hotel, and the Exhibition buildings at the Willows, the latter having burned down some years ago.

Having great faith in the mineral resources of Vancouver Island, Mr. Lorimer was interested to a large extent in the mining industry, and personally engaged in prospecting and developing properties. He located a number of claims on Banks Island and more recently had taken over a lease of the Sarita Iron mine on the West Coast, and was preparing to operate it when assailed by illness.

Mr. Lorimer was one of the originators of the Caledonian Society in Victoria and was a staunch supporter of all sports and games. In his younger days he showed a preference for bowling, in which game he was known as an expert. Mr. Lorimer resided at 576 Tuxedo Street.

A double funeral will take place at 3.15 to-morrow afternoon when services will be held at the B. C. Funeral Chapel over the remains of father and daughter. Interment will be made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

WILL ASK COUNCIL TO CONSIDER SALARY

Lower Paid Men in City's Service Want Readjustment

The lot of the City Father is not a happy one according to all accounts, and one of the chief topics with which the Council has been called upon to deal has been the insistent cry for more pay. These requests have come in the form of deputations and letters setting forth the justice of the claims made as seen from the suppliant's standpoint. Such applications have come from all branches of the city service.

It was thought that the deliberations of the Conciliation Board and the awards given in the various cases brought before it had settled the matter, but it was soon discovered that considerable dissatisfaction prevailed as it was alleged that a good many of the higher officials had received increases while the lower paid men who really needed the increase were not benefited to any appreciable extent.

The time is approaching when the budget comes up, and it is stated that the Civic Employees' Protective Association will have some proposals to offer before the appropriations are made. A meeting of the Association has been called for Wednesday evening at the Trades and Labor Hall on North Park Street, commencing at 8 o'clock, when business that has been left in abeyance pending the lifting of the influenza ban will be disposed of.

The main feature of the meeting, however, is said to be a readjustment of salaries on a more equitable basis as regards the lower paid men.

PREMIER EXPECTED HOME

Mr. Oliver Will Be Back From Ottawa on Friday.

According to a wire received at his office at the Parliament Buildings this morning, Premier Oliver expects to reach Victoria from Ottawa on Friday morning. Mr. Oliver has been in attendance at the Conference of Provincial Premiers at the National Capital during the past week where he went, accompanied by the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, to represent British Columbia.

Although lower temperature marks a more encouraging condition in the case of the Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, the Doctor will be confined to his bed for several days yet.

It was a happy circumstance that the Minister was able to put in some good work in fighting the epidemic at Cranbrook before he himself fell a victim.

Dr. King returned from the Mainland on Friday afternoon last, and took to his bed immediately he reached his Oak Bay home.

Victoria Club Sale of Work.—The girls at the Victoria Club have planned to hold a sale of work and evening entertainment on Wednesday at the club. The attractions will include fortune-telling by horoscope and in the tea-cup, and there will be tables for the sale of fancy needlework, and gifts suitable for soldiers overseas, while the Red Cross Committee will have charge of the tea arrangements. The affair is open at 4 o'clock. At 8 o'clock there will be a concert, followed by an informal dance.

WANTS DUPLICATION OF NAMES REMOVED

Similarity in Names of Streets Causes Much Trouble, Says Dr. Hall

That the confusion arising out of the duplication and similarity in the names of streets in Victoria should at once be done away with is the contention of Dr. Ernest A. Hall, who writes the Mayor and Council asking that they co-operate with the neighboring municipalities in order that the necessary re-naming of streets may be carried out.

It seems that during the epidemic of Spanish influenza the medical men of the city had a great deal of difficulty, and patients were kept waiting for the arrival of necessary assistance, as a result of this confusion in names owing to doctors experiencing much difficulty in finding the right place.

Dr. Hall points out the similarity of names of streets in and about Victoria, and the fact that a number of streets bear the same name proved, he said, especially confusing in the case of calls received over the telephone.

After requesting the Council's assistance in the matter of removing this source of annoyance and inconvenience and enumerating over two score names of streets to emphasize his point, Dr. Hall concludes: "The condition herein outlined reflects little credit upon the vocabulary of our engineering department."

"Come men, wake up! If you had to put up with these inconveniences, as we medical men have to, and make many a trip only to find that the names of the streets have been confounded, you would see to it that these conditions were a thing of the past." Dr. Hall signs his communication, "One of the Victims."

ALL ARE INVITED TO ATTEND BIG SERVICE

Secretary of Ministerial Association Issues Call for Thanksgiving

Rev. R. M. Thompson, secretary of the Ministerial Association, writes the Mayor and Council, inviting them to attend the public Thanksgiving Service which will be held on the grounds of the Provincial Parliament Buildings on Sunday afternoon commencing at 2.30 o'clock.

Lieut.-Governor Sir Frank S. Bannock will preside. Premier Oliver and his Cabinet will attend, together with General Leckie, O.C. M. D. No. 11, and Captain Martin, Naval Superintendent at Esquimalt. The various consuls, the military and naval forces and all public organizations are being invited to attend.

Representatives of all religious bodies have been asked to co-operate and participate in the service, which it is promised will be the largest affair that has ever taken place in Victoria.

The Spirit of Christmas

Christmas is the one time in the year when the generous impulses of humanity assert themselves to the utmost. Self is entirely forgotten, and everyone strives to make this festive season a joyous occasion for others. That is the real spirit of Christmas. The giving of some token of esteem or affection is a time-honored custom.

To those in doubt as to what to give, the following list will suggest gift tokens that will be appreciated this Christmas—and for many Christmases to come:

Steinway Pianos
 Nordheimer Pianos
 Cecilian Pianos
 Gerhard Heintzman Pianos
 Mendelssohn Pianos
 Lesage Pianos

So confident are we of the superior qualities of these instruments, that we give a double guarantee with each piano sold—the maker's guarantee and the guarantee of the House of Fletcher Bros., who have sold pianos in Victoria for the past thirty years. Never before have we had so many beautiful models on display in our warerooms as can be seen to-day.

After Lengthy Service Abroad Walter Adye Resumes Old Business.

One of the examples of the men, who, after being invalided from the army, are eager to resume the same line of industry as that which they were following when they dropped from a business life to serve in the army is Sergeant-Major Walter Adye. Mr. Adye was formerly in business as a pork butcher in Bannard Avenue, and when war broke he went to England as a reservist to re-join his old regiment, the Wiltshires. He assisted in training the men of Kitchener's army, and then saw three years' continuous active service, two years of which were spent in Macedonia. He was invalided out of the army in April, and since his return to Victoria has made arrangements to resume his former occupation. He will have a stall in the market, and also has resumed occupation of a small place where he will raise some of the stock he has for sale.

GRADUALLY DISAPPEARING

Spanish "Flu" Cases Appear to Be on the Wane; Ban Lifted at Duncan and Fernie.

Very few reports relative to the situation of the Spanish influenza epidemic throughout British Columbia have reached the Provincial Board of Health during the week-end, and Dr. Young takes that as a sign that the abatement already recorded in some sections is becoming more general. An Order-in-Council passed at this morning's meeting of the Cabinet raises the ban at Fernie and Duncan, at both of which places the malady has been practically eradicated. So far as the general situation is concerned the City of Kamloops appears to be about the worst off at the moment, the cases there being of a particularly virulent type.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Baffling mystery, the kind that will make you grasp the edge of your seat and gasp, is one of the many interesting features of Douglas Fairbanks' new Artcraft photoplay, "Bound in Morocco," which will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre for the first time to-night.

The picture opens with Mr. Fairbanks bound hand and feet with chains. The scenes that follow assist in clearing the mystery and these are provocative of thrill after thrill, while the unexpected happens almost every minute. Due to the numerous new stunts which are employed by Mr. Fairbanks in his escape from an angry mob of Arabs, who are mounted on camels, three cameras were used throughout the filming of the picture, and in this way one of the three photographing machines was sure to record the stunt. It was only when Mr. Fairbanks had out-vaulted his vaulting record that one of his photographers reported that his camera was out of order.

Mr. Fairbanks is capably assisted in "Bound in Morocco" by a capable staff of players, chief among whom are Pauline Curley, Tully Marshall and Frank Campeau.

On the same programme is also shown a very funny comedy, weekly and scenic.

COLUMBIA

Baccarat, the great French gambling game, is shown for the first time in an American motion picture in "Social Hypocrites," a Metro All-Star series picture, starring delightful May Allison, which will be shown at the Columbia to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This picture is a screen version of Alicia Ramsey's stage play, "Bridge." As no baccarat table could be secured in America, the Metro technical staff built an exact duplicate of the kind used in the big Casinos at Monte Carlo and other gambling palaces.

The table was twelve feet six inches long and forty-four inches wide and marked off in accordance with the rules of the game. All the accoutrements of the table were provided.

In "Social Hypocrites" the game takes place in an intimate gambling club in Paris, where devotees offer nightly homage to the god of chance. It is here that Colonel Francis Fielding, the father of Lenore (played by May Allison) loses heavily at the baccarat table. During the course of the spirited play about a hundred Parisian men types placed bets in this game. Ralph Virrell, an old European master at baccarat, coached the players in the game. Director Albert Capellani succeeded in getting his players into the reckless spirit of the game, and they played with enthusiasm. Another episode of the Vitaphone serial, "Vengeance and the Woman," will be featured on this programme.

VARIETY

Why should a famous physician suddenly sacrifice friends, fame and fortune—disappear to hide his head in shame from his fellow practitioners? What reasons are powerful enough to cause him to thus give up the benefits that came as the result of a lifetime's endeavor?

"The Doctor and the Woman," the Jewel adaptation of Mary Roberts Rinehart's powerful novel "K," tells the story of this physician's predicament. Photoplay patrons who attend the Variety Theatre will have the opportunity of seeing it when the management of that theatre presents it to-day, the opening day of a week's engagement.

Just as one never forgets the scent of delicious attar of roses, so you'll never forget the lovely picture of innocent girlhood made by Mildred Harris, who plays the role of Sidney in "The Doctor and the Woman." The shocking revelations of love dishonored which come to little Sidney are made doubly affecting by the amazing talent of this youthful star, whom your women patrons will love in the same unusual measure as the man.

Supporting Mildred Harris in this play there is one of the most admirably chosen, perfectly balanced casts that an audience will see for many months. Zeila Caully's "Carlotta" is particularly strong and fine—while True Boardman as "K," the great surgeon whom Carlotta ruined for reasons best known to herself, will give your people a figure with whose self-sacrifice every man and woman will sympathize.

An announcement that attaches particular interest to the appearance of Mildred Harris on the Variety screen this week was that recently made of her marriage to Charles Spencer Chaplin—yes, no other than "Charlie," the famous comedian of filmdom—which was celebrated very quietly in Los Angeles late in October.

POSSIBLY.

Father (during breakfast, sternly) —You've got to cut out this late-hour business, son. I heard you sneaking in at 2 o'clock this morning again.

ROMANO

Beautiful and popular, Irene Castle is coming back in what may be her farewell screen appearance in "The Girl From Bohemia," a Pathe play. It was only a week after she had finished making this play that she received the news of the tragic death of her husband, Capt. Vernon Castle, who was killed on the army aviation field in Texas.

Since then his young widow has retired from her professional activities and confined her labors to war work. When the last Thrift Stamp campaign was started in New York Mrs. Castle presided over a booth in Fifth Avenue and from early morning until long after the sun lights were twinkling she was to be found urging passers-by to help America win the war.

In "The Girl From Bohemia" Mrs. Castle is afforded a splendid opportunity to practice her winsome art, and Incidentally, displays some marvelous gowns.

"The Girl From Bohemia" is coming to the Romano for three days, starting to-day.

DOMINION

Vivid in characterization and gripping in plot is "The Romance of Tarzan," which visualizes the concluding chapters of Edgar Rice Burroughs' great story, "Tarzan of the Apes," for patrons of the moving picture screen.

"The Romance of Tarzan" will be shown at the Dominion Theatre, beginning to-night. It is in seven parts, and in addition to the remarkable novelty of its theme, offers the eye a rare treat with scenes of natural splendor, amid which wild animals and equally savage cannibals are shown in all their primitive strength and cruelty.

Elmo Lincoln again takes the part of Tarzan, the white ruler of this untamed wilderness, while Enid Markey has the role of Jane Porter, the beautiful daughter of the rich American scientist on an exploring expedition in the wilds of Africa, where she meets and loves Tarzan.

PANTAGES

Artistic posing, comedy, singing and dancing go to make up a fine bill of vaudeville opening at the Pantages Theatre this afternoon for a full week's run. There is many a treat in this programme, which carries with it that pleasing ripple of mirth which always appeals to a vaudeville crowd.

Tom Edwards presents a ventriloquial act which will hark a host of recollections back to the English variety stage, where both he and Miss Alice Melville, his associate in the act, were for many years tremendously popular on the Moss circuit. Miss Melville is a strong added attraction to this turn and to the whole bill, for her voice solos are remarkably sweet and always inspire a burst of applause.

The headline act this week features Phil E. Adams in a miniature musical satire, "The Owl." This is one of those side-splitting one-act comedies that is a genuine enough killer. With this is the customary Marty Brooks chorus, with attractive costumes, nimble dancing and melodious voices.

The Youngers present the opening act in artistic poses of remarkable interest, while the younger Younger makes a great hit at the close of the turn with a solo number costumed as a Highlander. Roe Reeves and the Gaynor Girls in second position hold their own with the rest of the bill in measure of popularity with the audiences. They have a style all their own with their comedy skits, "Morning In."

The line of patter in the offering presented by Manning, Feeney and Knoll is snappy all the way through and the singing of the trio is a real treat, for the voices harmonize to perfection and the songs rendered are well selected.

This is a class of vaudeville which always appeals to appreciative audiences.

POOR MAMA.

Mrs. Stately Street—Are you able to manage your husband?

RED CROSS COMEDY

TO OPEN TO-MORROW

"All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" to Run for a Week

To-morrow evening at the Princess Theatre, Yates Street, "All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy" will make her bow to Victoria, with Miss Eva Hart in the title role and a strong supporting cast.

The production was ready for presentation when the ban came down on the city, and in the intervening period opportunity has been taken by each member of the cast to perfect himself or herself in their respective parts, until the rehearsals now go with a swing suggestive of the latter end of a phenomenal "run." So that first-night patrons need have no fear that the production will be marred by any of the little hitches which occasionally make their appearance at a first performance.

The strong cast includes, besides Miss Hart, Reginald J. Hincks, Mrs. J. Bellby, Mrs. Thornborrow, Miss Sybil Street, T. J. Goodlake, A. M. D. Fairbairn, James Hunter and Oswald Barton. The scenic effects have been prepared by Stewart G. Clark and, as in the previous productions of this successful Red Cross Company, the stage management will be in the hands of Reginald Hincks.

The box office is open daily and early application should be made for seats. The production is to run for one week only, commencing Tuesday, November 26.

WIDE AWAKE.

"Is this a hustling town?"

"Sure," answered the old resident.

"We never sleep."

"Right up to snuff, eh?"

"That's the ticket, stranger. The feller down at the depot ain't the only person who stays awake all night in this town. 'We've got an all-night restaurant.'—Birmingham Age-Herald.

SATURDAY'S TAG DAY PROVED BIG SUCCESS

Italian Red Cross Will Receive $1,435.50 as Result; Many Helpers

The tag day held on Saturday in aid of Italy's wounded was very successful, $1,435.50, being the amount collected in the boxes. Cowichan is collecting, and when these boxes come in the above total will be considerably augmented.

Mrs. Herbert Pendray, upon whom fell the responsibility, and who carried out the arrangements for the day, desires to thank W. S. Terry for his great kindness in allowing the headquarters to be at his store on Fort Street, and also for permitting the taggers to have refreshments at half-price. This was very much appreciated by all the helpers.

Special mention should be made of the following, who worked so hard throughout the day: Miss Bromley-Jubb, tag day secretary; Mrs. Levy, convener of boxes; Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mrs. P. C. Abell, Mrs. Ernest Pendray, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. A. A. Bengough, Mrs. J. S. Muirhead, Mrs. Stewart Williams, Madame Webb, Mrs. Cullum, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Wilkerson, Rev. Arthur de B. Owen, Mrs. Herbert Leiser, Mrs. Stanaland, Mrs. C. F. Earle, Mrs. H. Baker, Mrs. Bland, Mrs. Champion, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Moon, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Frampton, Mrs. J. H. Fletcher, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Blanco, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. West, Mrs. Northern, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. Pocock, Mrs. Roberts, and the Misses Alex. Bradshaw, Doreen Burtt, A. Woodruff, Buckle, Margaret Morgan, Belle Eilers, Vantreight, Ruth Tripp, Jean Sloan, Shakespeare, Enid Ferrable, Mildred Jull, Mabel Hall, Florence Whittney, B. Morley, Mc Gilvary, Gwen Pontiff, Kate Renwick, Pratt, W. Bell, Violet Macan, Lovell, Norma Pendray, Lucille Hall, Edna Matheson, Alexandra Eagle, Rowena Harvey, Shapero, Enoch Taylor, Winnie Davies, Chadwick, Jasper, Duncan, Martin, Tolmie, Margaret Hincks, Alne Williams, Mabel Rhodes, Muriel Cox, Claudia Cullum, Marjory Cullum, Alex. Martin, Elsie Elkington, Helena Haddow, Jessie Smith, Grace Hall, Audrey Topp, Norah Denovan, Myria Moore, Muriel Knott, Dorothy Hicks, Katherine Fatt, Helen Malloy, Mildred Osterhout, Marjory McVite, Evelyn Grey, Bee Wolfington, Iris Statford, Nita Raymond, Winnie Spratt, Jennie Abhouse, Jessie Paul, Nellie and Jennie Dill, Eva Howard, Florence Eagle, Blanche May, M. Nickerson, Mary Malcolm, Rodgers, Andrews, Holmes, Franks, Duncan, Ferguson, Dawson, Mylam, Hill, Gardier, Grace Smith, McMillan, Gladys Garesche, Cecilia Garesche, Elen McKay, Augusta McKay, Margaret Fletcher, Master Will Pendray, Tom Walkins, Sidney Patt. Two of the youngest taggers who worked all the day were the Misses Rachel and Rosie Pluce. The two canine favorites, "Peter" and "Muggins," were on duty, as they are on all tag days and did nobly. If any, who worked to make the day the success it was, have been overlooked, will they accept the heartfelt thanks of Mrs. Pendray, who is very grateful to the noble band of workers she had, without whose assistance the tag day could not have been held.

OVERWORKED MAN

Couldn't Get Man to Fill His Place, Had to Keep On—How He Did It.

Saratoga, Cal.—"I am an engineer and overworked so I could not sleep, was tired all the time. I could not get a man to fill my place so had to keep on working. My druggist asked me to try Vinol, and it built me up and strengthened me so I feel fine and sleep all right."—Isaac W. Bradford.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success in such cases to beef and cod liver peptonates, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the greatest body-building and strength creating tonics.

We strongly recommend Vinol.

D. E. Campbell, and at the best drug store in every town and city in the country.

AN EASY WINNER.

When the Slocum Tennis Club held a carnival in aid of war funds, everybody began to talk about Blinkers.

What costume would he wear? His calves were too thin for knee-breeches, and his arms too slim for a Viking; while his small head, scant of hair, would be lost in an antique helmet.

On the great day, however, Blinkers was first favorite. All the ladies crowded round him and voted for him to have the prize, while William the Conqueror and Hamlet looked dismally alone.

A late arrival, tormented out as a splendid Roman warrior, asked: "What's the trouble with you fellows? You all look as cheerful as a wet week."

"It's that Blinkers!" came a chorus of growls. "The little brute came as a bargain, marked down to one and eleven-threes, and every blessed girl in the place is fighting to get near him!"

EMPLOYMENT PLAN IS COMPREHENSIVE
Dominion-Wide System of Employment Offices Outcome of Ottawa Conferences

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Canada is to have a national system of employment offices co-ordinated through the Federal Department of Labor. The Minister of Labor purposes to undertake the work of organization at once. At a series of conferences held last week questions of policy, plans for organizing the system and details of office routine were discussed and a general scheme determined. The new system will have as its basis employment work that has already been done in Ontario and Quebec, as well as the agricultural employment work of the western provinces.

SOCIALIST WHO WAS HELD BY GERMANS WELCOMED IN PARIS

Paris, Nov. 25.—Deputy Ingels, a Socialist, was welcomed in the Chamber of Deputies on Saturday after being a prisoner for two years in Germany. The wildest enthusiasm marked Deputy Ingels' entry into the Chamber. He related instances of his own experiences as a prisoner, and also of other Frenchmen who were also held prisoner by the Germans. Concerning the general behavior of the Germans toward their prisoners, he said: "Never will you be able to appreciate what these unhappy people suffered. Never will you be able to believe the facts when they are described. Each placard announced more harassing measures. 'I saw German soldiers brutally kick women and children, and during the time I was condemned a prisoner, I heard the most abominable things from the guards where women and young girls, some of whom were less than fifteen years old, were imprisoned.'"

PETITION TO WILSON REGARDING IRELAND

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—Roman Catholic organizations were notified here today by United States Senator James D. Phelan that he was to present a petition of the Roman Catholic clergy of California to President Wilson to-day asking that Ireland's political freedom be espoused by the United States at the peace conference.

82,000 GREEKS WERE TAKEN FROM MACEDONIA BY THE BULGARIANS

Salonica, Nov. 24.—(Via London, Nov. 25.)—The Bulgarians during their occupation of Eastern Macedonia, deported 82,000 Greek residents, according to official Bulgarian documents in the possession of M. Diyaroglu, sub-prefect of Demirhisar.

A very large number of those deported, he says, succumbed to famine, torture and enforced labor. At Kitchener a number of Greeks were burned alive under the pretext that they had typhus microbes.

Australia Declares Ex-German Colonies Must Be Retained

ESCAPES CAUGHT IN SASKATCHEWAN

Two Men Charged With Murderers Were Captured in a Strawstack.

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 25.—Victor Carmel and Jean Baptiste St. Germain, charged with having murdered James McKay and Corporal Horsley, were captured at 10:30 yesterday morning in a strawstack at the farm of Charles W. Young, on the bank of the North Saskatchewan River six miles east of Prince Albert. They were in a state almost bordering on collapse from hunger and exposure and were taken without a struggle. The stack was surrounded by police and citizens, and a demand was made upon them to come out and put up their hands or the stack would be fired into. The men crawled out from a hole which they had burrowed into the pile and were immediately handcuffed.

They carried small revolvers, having thrown away their rifles earlier in the morning when they were fired at by police in the bush on the farm of R. T. Goodfellow. They were brought to the jail here.

Got Matches.
Information that suspicious characters were in the neighborhood first came to the police on Saturday night about 11 o'clock, when a telephone message was sent by Charles W. Young that a man had come to his place and asked for matches. The man had shoved open the door, which had been held closed with a crowbar, as the house had been jacked up for the purpose of being moved. The man just reached round the partially opened door and took the matches without exposing himself. About 4 o'clock Sunday morning two men came to the same house and rapped on the door. Mr. Young and George Carpenter, a hired man, went downstairs and they said they were very thirsty and asked for water. This was given them and they drank a large quantity. Mr. Young asked them if they were hungry and they said they were. He had only a small quantity of food in the house and he gave them a corn cake. They ate probably a pound of food and a half of this. They seemed to be considerably excited. They said that it was too cold to hunt and that they were going to Prince Albert.

Telephoned Police.
After finishing eating they got up and went out. Mr. Young was told that they started toward the river and slightly east. As there is a fringe of bush along the river bank he was afraid to telephone for the police as the house was raised up several feet from the ground and it was possible for the men to come back and hide under the building where they could hear what was being said. He went back to bed and slept until about 8 o'clock when he telephoned the police at Prince Albert that these two men were the men wanted. He then went out around the yard and observed fresh tracks in the neighborhood of his stack, which is about 150 feet from the house. There were evidences that some one had tried to climb upon the stack, but had failed to do so.

Large Posses.
By 10 o'clock a considerable crowd of officers and citizens who had been out on the chase from the first time a call had gone forth that the bandits were in the neighborhood, had gathered. It had first been considered whether or not the stack should be fired at, though there was no definite indication of the bandits' presence, as they had burrowed a hole in the stack about half-way up and had covered the opening up so that there was little appearance of disturbance in the straw. Superintendent Mahoney, of the provincial police, who came here on Saturday from Regina, and Charlie McDonald, M. P. of this city, shouted for the bandits to come out. They already had fired three or four shots into the air as a warning. The two men were crawling out of the stack and the great man-hunt was at an end.

Rifles Found.
The men admitted they had dropped their rifles when they had been fired at by police officers the night before. They were taken over the ground in an effort to discover the rifles. They were unable to do so, but later the weapons were found. There was a Mauser and a Winchester magazine rifle, the latter fully loaded. The weapons were rolled up in blankets, and there was a grain bag containing a large number of cartridges. There also were several pairs of boots and slippers. It was apparent that the men knew they were nearing the city and had taken this method of concealing the weapons.

The bandits have maintained strict silence since their arrest. They will be charged with the murder of James McKay and Charles Horsley.

Sugar Returns Home.
Prince Albert, Nov. 25.—At least one man who was believed to have been murdered by the Steep Creek bandits is safe. This is James Sugar, the Austrian bachelor farmer who had been reported missing from his home half a mile from where James McKay's motor car was found buried on the sloping bank of the South Saskatchewan River. Yesterday Sugar returned to his home.

Charges of murder are being preferred today against St. Germain and Carmel, the bandits captured in the strawstack at Young's farm. There is some doubt as to the nature of the charge that will be laid against Dr. Gervais.

The remains of James McKay have not yet been recovered from the river.

OVER 50,000 IN ARMY OF CANADA EXPECT TO RESUME POSITIONS

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Of 134,000 members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force who do not wish to follow agricultural pursuits after the war, over 50,000 say that the positions they held before enlisting will be open to them on their return. This figure has been made available to the Repatriation Committee of the Cabinet by an analysis of the National Service cards signed overseas by 230,000 soldiers early in 1917.

In addition to the 51,305 who definitely stated that their positions were being held open for them, 14,422 said they were uncertain or doubtful. There were 12,656 who did not answer the question and 45,154 who asserted that their positions were not open.

FINANCIAL NEWS

BREAK IN CHICAGO GRAINS TO-DAY

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)
Chicago, Nov. 25.—The news on corn was very bullish this morning and the market had a sharp rally shortly after the opening. It was short lived and prices fell away rapidly on heavy selling by locals. Oats did not show any strength to-day and closed more than two cents down.

SAVINGS DEPOSITS IN DOMINION INCREASE

Ottawa, Nov. 25.—Canada has again attained a new record in savings bank deposits. The bank figures for the month of October show also an increase in assets of approximately $131,000,000 as compared with the September figures. The reserve fund shows a decrease of approximately $2,000,000 because of the absorption of the Bank of British North America by the Bank of Montreal.

ARMENIANS WANT A GOVERNMENT OF THEIR OWN IN FUTURE

Paris, Nov. 25.—Representatives of the Armenian settlements in Egypt and the Sudan at a meeting in Cairo, according to a dispatch to The Temps from Cairo, adopted unanimously a resolution addressed to the Allied Powers declaring that the Armenian nation has been the victim of barbarians. It says the Armenian nation claims its right of independence and sovereignty over all of Armenia, and requests the immediate recognition of a Provisional Government. It asks also that Turkish troops be withdrawn from Armenia and their places taken by Allied and Armenian contingents.

NOVA SCOTIA COAL MINERS DEMAND WORK

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 25.—Because the miners of Florence, No. 3 colliery, threaten to expel their mine officials and under command of certified members of their own, invade adjoining mines of the Dominion Coal Company, rather than lose their homes and occupations, which are menaced by the working out of the Scotia seam, the A. M. W. of Nova Scotia, in session here, has dispatched an urgent appeal to the Government to prevent trouble by putting into force the recommendation of Fuel Controller Magrath, which ruled that the Scotia people should be allowed, in the interest of greater production, to take coal from the Dominion property throughout this winter.

BIG SLUMP IN NEW YORK STOCKS

Long Stocks Came on the Market and Buying Power Was Restricted

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)
New York, Nov. 25.—The stock market was a demoralized proposition here today. Weakness in railroad shares caused free selling in other parts of the list. Much of the selling in the rails was induced by talk of the possibility of permanent Government control of the carriers, agitation along the latter lines causing some of the timid holders to let go their lines. The weakness was general and the market closed without even a rally.

STEEL FOR 8,100-TONNERS DELIVERED NEXT JANUARY

Victoria Machinery Depot Negotiating for Site; Company Proposes to Employ 2,500 Men; Start to Be Made Early in New Year

"We have several sites under consideration and expect to be in a position to make some definite announcement as to the location of the yard within the next day or two," said R. R. Neild, Manager of The Victoria Machinery Depot; this morning, in discussing with a Times representative the steps that have been taken by the company to get the Government steel contract under way.

The indications are that the site ultimately chosen will be a central one, in view of the fact that The Victoria Machinery Depot proposes to extend its present engineering plant in the Upper Harbor incidental to the construction of engines, boilers and auxiliary machinery for the four steel steamships that are to be built by the company to the order of the Dominion Government.

The steel for the first two ships which will be supplied through the Dominion Government, has been ordered, and Mr. Neild expects delivery of the first shipments in January. The prompt delivery of this steel will permit the company to go right ahead with construction early in the New Year.

Two ways will be laid down at the commencement of operations, but it is the intention of the company if possible to secure a site of some six acres in extent to allow for the expansion of the yard with the development of the steel shipbuilding industry here.

Initial Outlay.
It is estimated that an expenditure of approximately $300,000 will cover the initial outlay for a two-way yard, exclusive of the figure for the site. The erection of a fully equipped machine shop on the shipbuilding site will cost another $50,000.

Complete drawings of the ships to be built here are now en route from Ottawa, and are daily expected at the V. M. D. offices.

The four vessels to be constructed here, as previously announced, will be of 8,100 tons each, and will be 400 feet in length. The company has a guarantee from the Dominion Government to be kept continuously employed in the construction of steel ships for a period of years.

The Government's contract with the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. of Sydney, N. S., calls for a supply of steel plates covering a period of five years, which obviously means that the Canadian steel shipbuilding programme will be continued at least for a similar period.

Employ 2,500 Men.
Under the terms of the contract the Victoria Machinery Depot will build all the machinery necessary for the equipping of the ships, which means

MANAGER IS HERE TUNING THINGS UP

Bayly Hipkins Now Spending a Great Deal of His Time at Foundation Yards

Bayly Hipkins, Vice-President and General Manager of the Foundation Company's Pacific Coast operations, is back in town again after a flying visit to Seattle. Mr. Hipkins is spending a lot of his time in Victoria getting the Point Hope and Point Ellice yards down to a proper working basis. The lumber situation is now much more favorable and the manager now looks for greater speed in construction. The two yards here are engaged in a very equal tussle. If anything the Point Ellice yard can boast of a slight advantage. Of the six vessels now in course of construction at Point Hope and Point Ellice, hulls 207, 208, 216 and 219 are in-frame. Hull 207 has twenty-four square frames up, whereas hull 217 at Point Ellice can boast of twenty-seven. Hull 216 has the stem in position and the forefoot is practically ready for 207.

Keelsons Being Laid.
The stern-post for 216 will probably be hoisted into position on 216 at Point Ellice on Wednesday and the stern-post for 207 is now being worked at Point Hope. The keelsons are now being laid in the first two hulls and the ceiling of hulls 207 and 216 will shortly be put under way.

Bill McGregor and Ken Macpherson, Superintendents at Point Ellice and Point Hope respectively, are hustling things along with any sort of a show both are out to establish records. Construction has now reached such a stage that the force of men engaged on the contract will soon be increased.

NINETEENTH SHIP.

With the launching of the 3,000-ton auxiliary schooner Olvenchy on Friday but one more vessel remains to be put into the water at the Foundation Company's Tacoma yard. The Olvenchy is the nineteenth ship to be completed at Tacoma for the French Government.

WILL IMPROVE MAIL SERVICE AS SOON AS CONDITIONS PERMIT

Capt. Troup Hears Complaints of Business Men Regarding Present System

Following a discussion of the matter at a recent meeting of the local Board of Trade Council, serious complaints concerning the existing mail service between Victoria and Vancouver were this morning laid before Capt. Troup, Manager of the B. C. Coast Service, by representatives of the jobbers, manufacturers and of the retail interests of this city. After a conference, during which the two sides of the question were thoroughly considered to the advantage of both parties, Capt. Troup stated that, realizing present difficulties, he might be relied upon to meet the situation as promptly and effectively as possible.

In presenting their case to Capt. Troup, the delegates stated that, upon investigation, they had found that the day service between Victoria and Vancouver had been maintained seven days a week. But the night service, which is of the greatest importance to the business of both parties, had been discontinued owing to the loss of the Princess Sophia and the temporary absence of the Princess Adelaide. During the last fortnight, said the delegates, there had been only five deliveries of mail a week here by the night boat from Vancouver, while the Terminal City had received only four deliveries from Victoria.

Importance of Night Boat.
From the point of view of business men, it was pointed out, the night boat was more important than the vessel crossing the Gulf during the day. Mail from Vancouver to be carried by the boat leaving that city at midnight could be posted until 9 o'clock and would be delivered here in the course of the following morning. The business involved could be conducted here immediately, and the Victoria goods could be shipped during the same day. On the other hand, if the night boat were not running, a letter carried by the vessel leaving Vancouver at 1 o'clock in the morning would arrive here at such a time as to make shipment on the same day impossible.

Company's Difficulties.
Answering these arguments, Capt. Troup confessed that he had not appreciated these difficulties in the same light as they had been laid before him. He had realized that there had been difficulties resulting from the impaired service, but he had not thoroughly appreciated before that there had been great loss of business entailed. He was determined to meet the situation as promptly and effectively as possible, but he pointed out to his visitors that the company was laboring under great difficulty in conducting its service. It was extremely difficult to secure officers, firemen and crews for the boats and stevedores to load.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR ISLAND PRINCESS

Will Leave Here at 7.30 a. m., Auto-Stage Making Connections at Saanichton

Under her new winter schedule the C. P. R. steamer Island Princess left here at 7 o'clock this morning for the Gulf Islands. Owing to the early hour of departure the company has arranged for an auto-stage to leave the Belleville Street wharf at 6.30 on the scheduled late of sailing, connection being made with the steamer at Saanichton at 9.30 a. m.

The Island Princess, during the winter months, will eliminate the run to Vancouver. She will leave here on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 7.30 a. m. On Thursdays she will go on to Nanaimo, but on other days will confine her run to the Gulf Islands.

WITNESSES INVITED TO GIVE EVIDENCE

Wreck Commissioner Communicates With Governor of Alaska Re Sophia Inquiry

Capt. John D. Macpherson, Wreck Commissioner for British Columbia, has communicated with Thomas Higgs, Jr., Governor of Alaska, inviting officers of the United States lightship tender Cedar, the power schooner King & Winge, and others, who may be in a position to throw some light on the Princess Sophia disaster, to come to Victoria at the Government's expense, to give evidence before a marine court of investigation. The Wreck Commissioner has not the power to subpoena these witnesses as they are American citizens. Should they be willing to come to Victoria and testify the Wreck Commissioner will make arrangements to hold the inquiry which has been ordered by the Canadian Marine Department.

DUMARU DERELICT HAS BEEN SIGHTED

Another Boat Accounted for; Seventeen Perished From Exposure and Starvation

The wreck of the steamer Dumar, which was destroyed by lightning off Guan October 16, was sighted October 23 in latitude 13.5 degrees north, longitude 141.32 east. The wreck, when sighted, was floating bottom up with propellers and rudder extending out of the water.

According to a cable from Manila fourteen additional members of the crew of the Dumar have reached Samar, Philippine Islands, in a lifeboat. The men suffered terrible privations, being ten days without food and five days without water. Seventeen of the thirty-one who got away in the lifeboat, including Chief Engineer Newell and Navigator Holmes, it is reported, died of exposure and starvation.

This is the third boat from the Dumar to be accounted for. A San Francisco dispatch says the above figures do not tally with the figures given by Capt. O. Borriesen, master, to the former agents of the company at San Francisco, who placed the crew number at forty-six. According to the latest Manila cable and previous cables accounting for two boats and a raft, there were fifty-nine men in the Dumar's crew. The three boats and the raft originally contained all of the members of the crew, Capt. Borriesen reported.

WILL RETAIN LARGE VESSELS ON ROUTE

Victoria Will Continue to Be Port of Call for Large Nippon Steamers

The larger Nippon Yusen Kaisha boats will not be withdrawn from the American route with the return of peace. Advances received in Seattle on Friday from Japan state that the company has no intention of withdrawing its big liners from the trans-Pacific trade and on the contrary has plans under consideration for further improving the service.

To Keep Big Ships on Run.

When German and Austrian submarines were playing havoc with shipping in the Mediterranean, the huge liners Fushimi Maru, 21,020 tons displacement; Suwa Maru, 21,020 tons displacement; Kashimi Maru, 18,910 tons displacement; Katori Maru, 19,100 tons displacement; Kamo Maru, 15,980 tons displacement; and Atsuta Maru, 15,900 tons displacement, were withdrawn from the European service and placed on the trans-Pacific route from China and Japan to Victoria and Seattle, the smaller liners including the Yokohama Maru, Tamba Maru, Inaba Maru and Shikoku Maru being transferred to other routes.

Results of the operations of the larger vessels in the American trade have been so encouraging, say representatives of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, that it has been decided to keep them permanently in this service. Heavy travel between Europe and the Orient has been booked during the war and the route has been found so advantageous that the Nippon Yusen Kaisha has decided to maintain the service permanently.

NEW MILL PLANNED AT PORT ANGELES

The Whalen interests propose to erect a paper mill at Port Angeles, it is stated. Before the war this concern invested nearly $80,000 in a site for the plant, which is to occupy eighty acres on Edie spit. The company had almost perfected arrangements to finance the undertaking, but the war caused a temporary suspension of its plans. The close of the war finds the company prepared to reopen negotiations for the establishment of this plant, which will include the manufacture of high-grade paper. With a site already purchased, with raw materials and ample hydro-electric power available, everything points to the development of the company's plans in the near future. Whalen Bros. operate three large pulp and paper mills on this side.

A DANGEROUS PRECEDENT.

A few weeks before Waterloo Frederick William III., King of Prussia, definitely promised a constitution. But when Waterloo was won, when a weary Europe began to turn back into the ways of peace and kings were safer on their thrones, this promise was forgotten; and the fact that the people wanted it was only the more reason, it appeared, for refusing to give it to them. The King, who had been aggravated by the patriotism of his people had refused to give them what he had promised in times of need.—

ACCIDENT'S VICTIM DIES IN HOSPITAL

Inquest To-day Into Death of W. G. Hillary, Struck
by Car

As a result of injuries sustained in a collision with an automobile last Wednesday, W. G. Hillary, of 123 Moss Street, died on Saturday night at a quarter to ten. The victim of the accident had been a patient at the St.
Joseph's Hospital since the time when his bicycle crashed into an automobile, and little hope for his recovery had been entertained. Suffering with severe concussion, he rarely recovered consciousness, and often he was delirious.

An inquest will be held to examine into the accident at a quarter past four this afternoon at the Sands Funeral Chapel where the remains are now reposing.

From the narrative of a passer-by it appears that Hillary was riding a bicycle south along Linden Avenue and taking Richardson Street corner with a fairly wide sweep collided with an automobile delivery wagon driven by Frank Richmond, of the Reliable Messenger Service.

Driver's Story.
The driver of the motor car states that he was driving his car westwards along Richardson Street, and as he approached the corner, a huge bull-dog made for his vehicle. While dodging the animal, he attempted to make the turn, and the approaching cyclist probably confused by the swerving of the car and the barking of the dog seemed unable to steer clear of the oncoming motor. The inevitable crash followed.
Hillary was hurled against the windshield, the glass causing serious wounds to his face and head, and the shock resulting in fatal concussion.

The unfortunate man was taken to the St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. Barrett. Several stitches in the scalp were found necessary, but from the first it was seen that the patient's chance of life was very small. After long fits of delirium he regained consciousness several times, but, gradually sinking, he passed away on Saturday night.

A PEOPLE'S PEACE.

No more campaigns of frightfulness;
no more Lusitania outrages; no more Belgian atrocities; no more murders of nurses, shooting of priests, wholesale destruction of property; no more world wars at the bidding of a mad monarch and his puppets. It must be a people's peace—a world of democracy and equality freed from the rule of military and despotic tyrant-kaisers.—

FRENCH CAPITAL WANTED AT HOME

Investor Here Points to Conditions Now Prevalent; Has Mine in North

"There will be little money from Europe coming to British Columbia, and particularly from France, during the next few years, and you will have to look to American sources, apart from what is already available, for industrial development." This is the opinion of H. Maluin, of Paris, who with his family arrived here yesterday.
He came down from St. Lawrence on the steamer Jefferson, having a rather rough trip owing to headwinds, all the way south, and crossed to Victoria yesterday.

Pursuing his subject Mr. Maluin said that a great deal of French capital had been lost in this province in speculation and bad management, naming local instances to back up his observations. He has been in the habit of making periodical visits to this province for some years on business, and so is in a position to know whereof he speaks, in relation to French capital, and development in British Columbia. "Apart from the damaging effect of failures inevitable to purchases in real estate with the crest of the reality wave," he says, "we have in France many investments ahead, during the time of reconstruction, which will force us to keep money at home. The Frenchman as a rule prefers to invest in his own country, and in some industry whose progress he can watch. A few more daring spirits came here in the flowing tide period made money, and naturally induced others to invest, who were not so fortunate. Now people are more cautious in France, and the situation forced on them by the war will require all the money for re-construction in the northern departments, without any surplus for investment overseas."

Gold Mining.
Mr. Maluin's interest in British Columbia lies in a hydraulic property in the Atlin district, which he has just visited. He takes a rather pessimistic view of the future of gold mining in the province, on account of the high price of labor, the fixed value of the product, and increasing costs of operation. Yet gold must be mined, he says, and it is to the authorities that operators look for encouragement to continue to win gold from the mines.
Mr. Maluin has been travelling in California. All up and down the Pacific Coast, he says, the majority of people do not realize the sacrifices of France. With the removal of the baron women travelling on the Atlantic
Mr. Maluin will take his family home,

THANKSGIVING AFTER RECENT EPIDEMIC

Special Service at First Presbyterian Church Yesterday;
Message to Seven Churches

Big congregations attended the special services of thanksgiving held both morning and evening yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church. The morning service opened with the old Scottish anthem, "I Joyed When to the House of God, Go Up, They Said to Me," followed by the 100th and 121st Psalms, and the singing of a solo "My Task," by Mrs. Morrison.

Suffering and Sin.
Rev. J. G. Inkster preached on the subject of Christ's cure of the man to whom He said: "Go thou and sin no more, lest greater evil befall thee." The minister emphasized the close connection which existed between physical suffering and moral evil, quoting Ruskin, who said: "Where there is pain, there has been sin." While this was a profound truth, it was not universally true, declared Mr. Inkster, but in the mystery of suffering one must recognize the visitations of God's providence.

The Bible story of the man's cure showed that he was grateful because for some reason he was chosen for cure while others were taken. Drawing a parallel in the recent epidemic, the minister pointed out that it was incumbent upon those who had escaped the scourge to give thanks to God for their care and deliverance.

At the evening service Mr. Inkster dealt with the theme of the messages delivered to the seven Churches, as given in the first and third Chapters of Revelations. The four fold purposes of these messages was to show what God approved of, and of what he disapproved—a revelation of tremendous importance; to give a forecast of the future history of the church, and the various periods, dealing with the evils of the Roman apostasy of the Middle Ages and the equally evil apostasy of this age, and drawing attention to the frequent repetition of the words, "Repentance" and "overcome"; and the last two purposes to give local churches and individual a moral standard by which to test the spiritual state.

Bible Conference.
Announcement was made that Dr.
Wm. Evans will commence his Bible conference on Sunday next, December 1, instead of on Wednesday as originally planned. He will remain in Victoria for fifteen days, giving two sessions daily except Saturday, and two theatre meetings on Sunday afternoons.

HER IDEA.

Draft Expert Dennis received a protest the other day from a mother whose boy is now in France: "Ain't it just like them Frinch gals to be rumm'ing after our boys. My son writes that life in the trenches would not be so bad if the 'ooties' didn't pester them so terribly."
